THE 1962 LANCER

This yearbook illustrates the varied personalities of the students who make up Royal Oak Kimball High School, Royal Oak, Michigan, and depicts them in the individual roles that they play.

We . . . The Students . . .

. . . enjoy ourselves
at football games and group activities or anytime our friends get together.

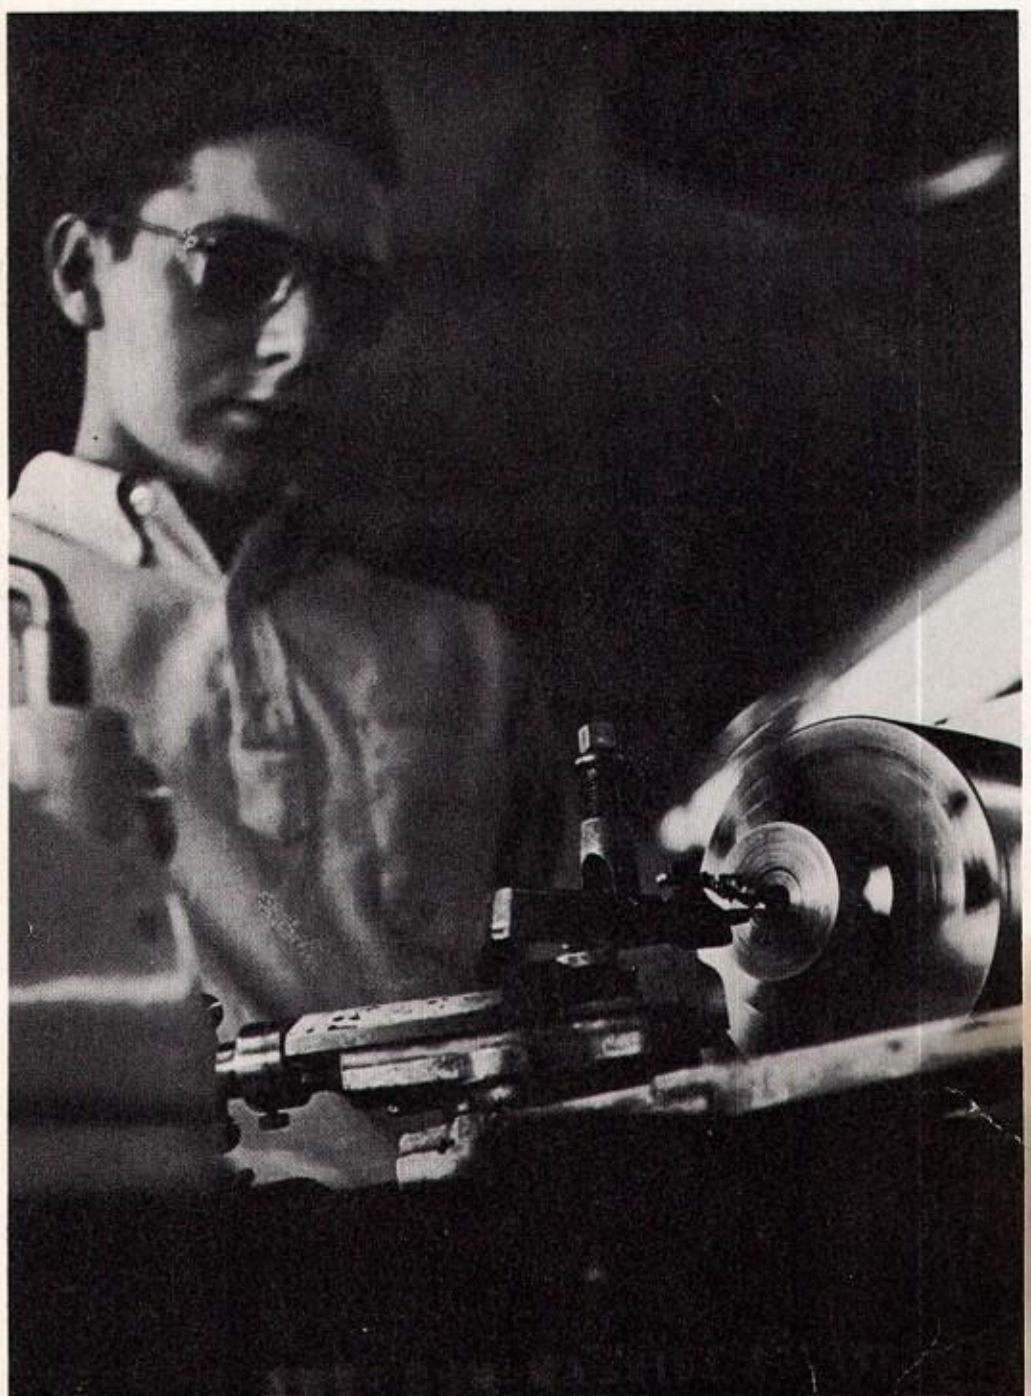
. . . dream quietly
of the present,
the past,
and the future,
for which we prepare.



. . . work intently
on homework, projects, and daily assignments in our vocational and academic courses.

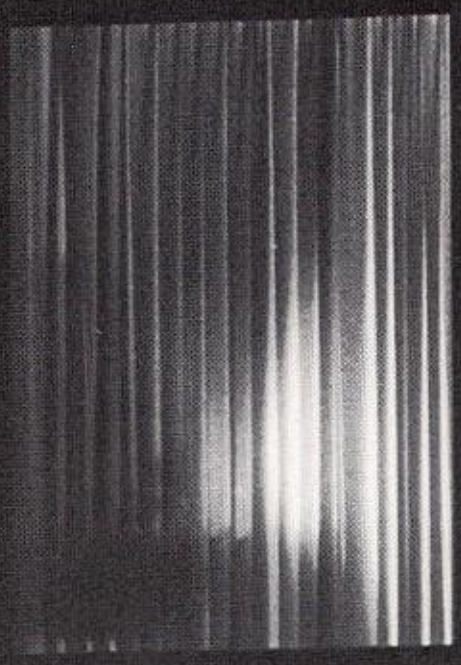
The School Day Begins . . .



. . . with preparation for the next day's classes.

We get up reluctantly . . .

. . . and run for the bus.

. . . eat rapidly . . .

. . . dress hurriedly . . .

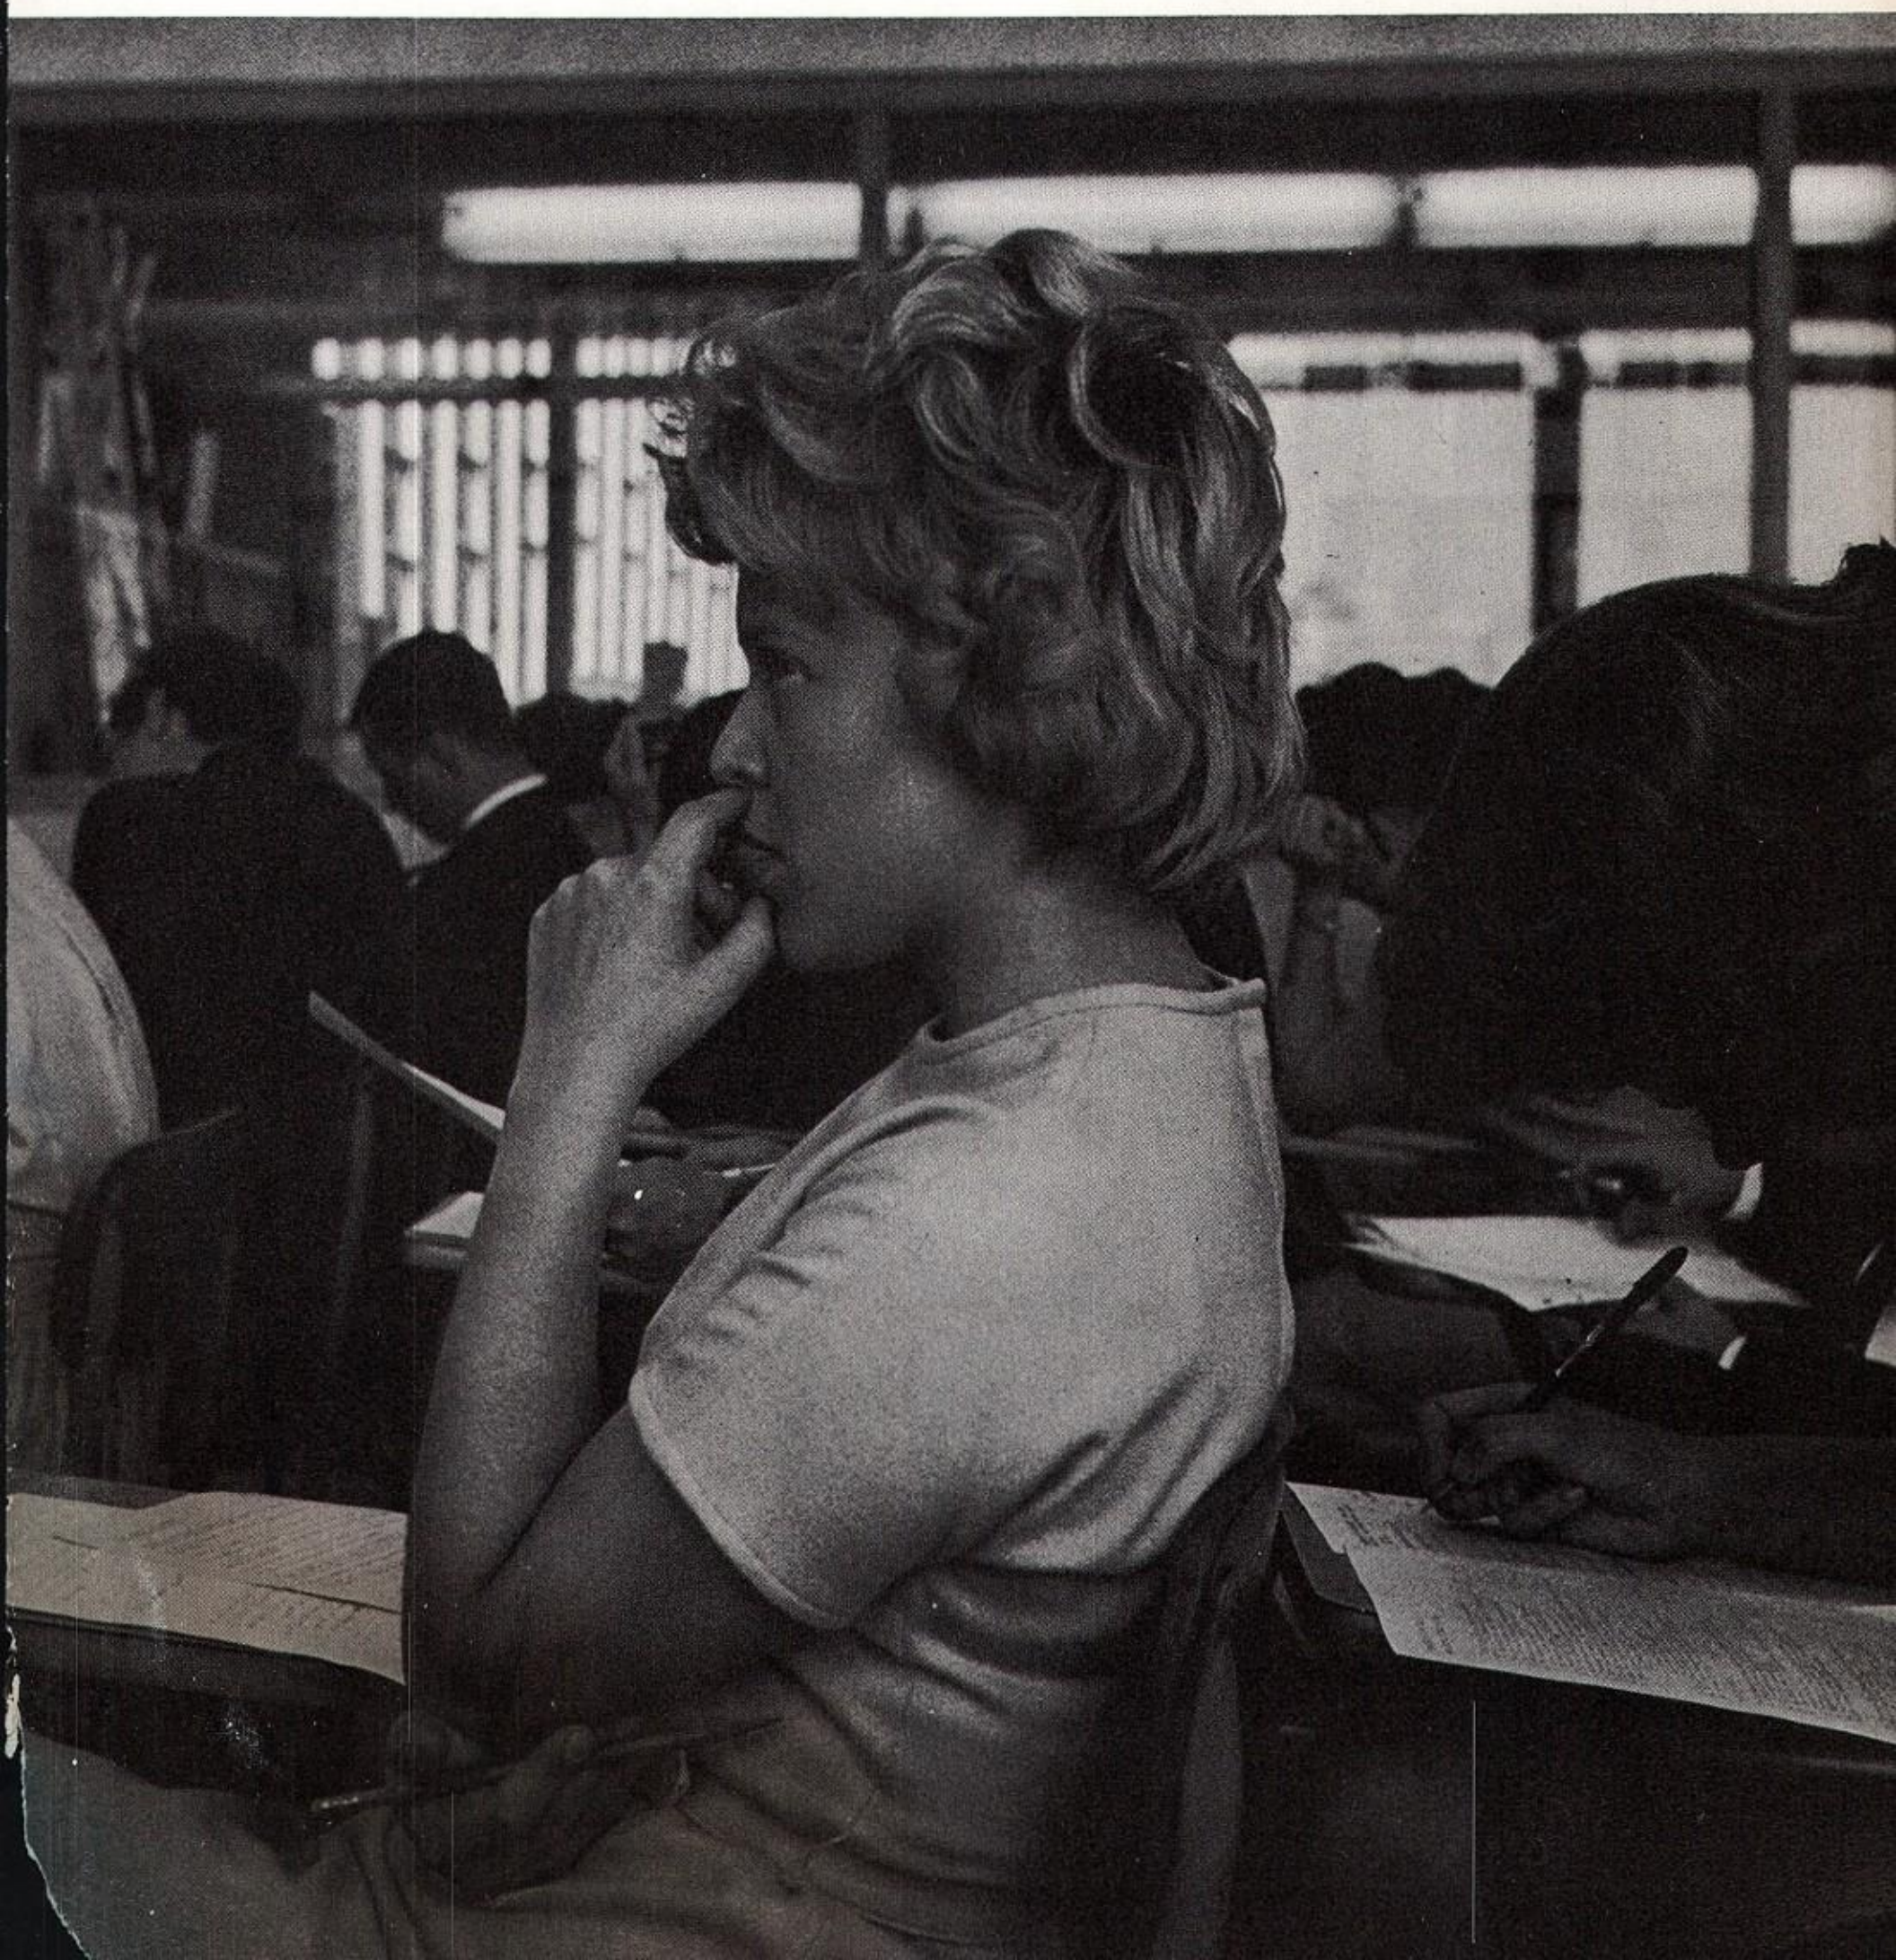
Peggy Capognse, Nancy Messina, and Mike Salamon board their early school-bound bus.

Having arrived early, these Kimball students saunter into school to wait for their first class.

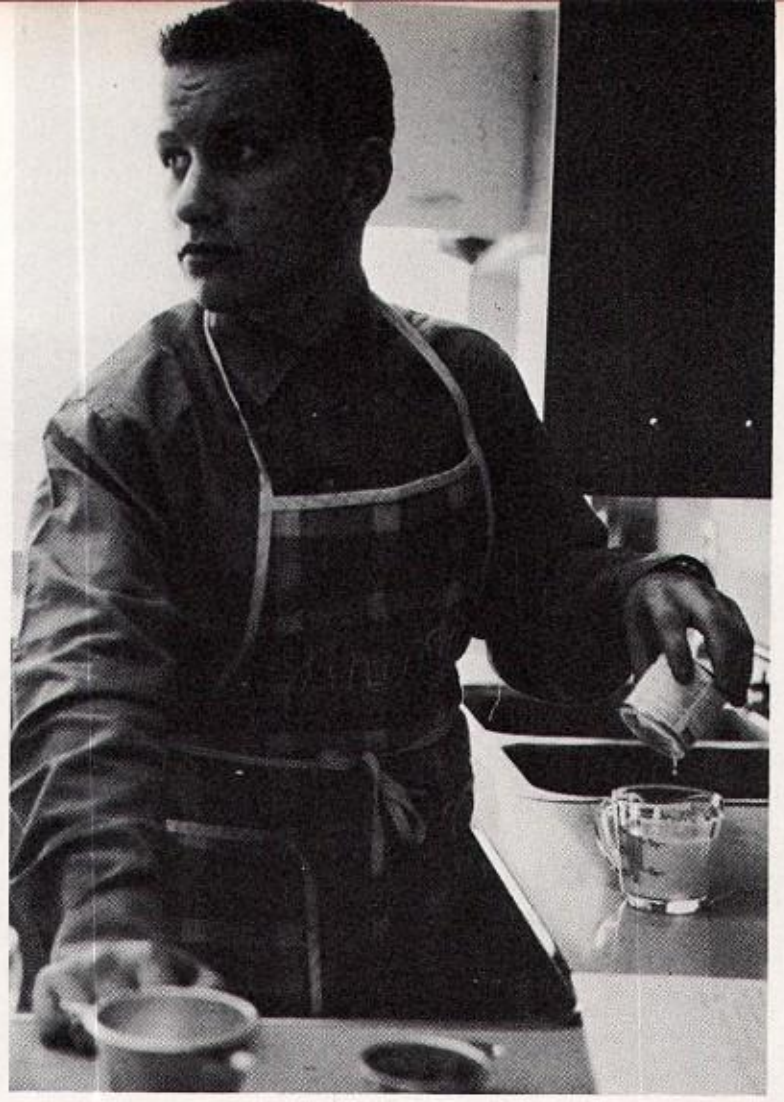
While students around her answer questions, Sandi Pierse tries to recall the author of Hamlet.

We Arrive to Learn:

Over 2500 students from all parts of northern Royal Oak converge on the newest of the city's high schools for a day that includes academic studies, extra-curricular activities, and social functions.



Absent-minded Bob Gruhan concocts a recipe in his cooking class.

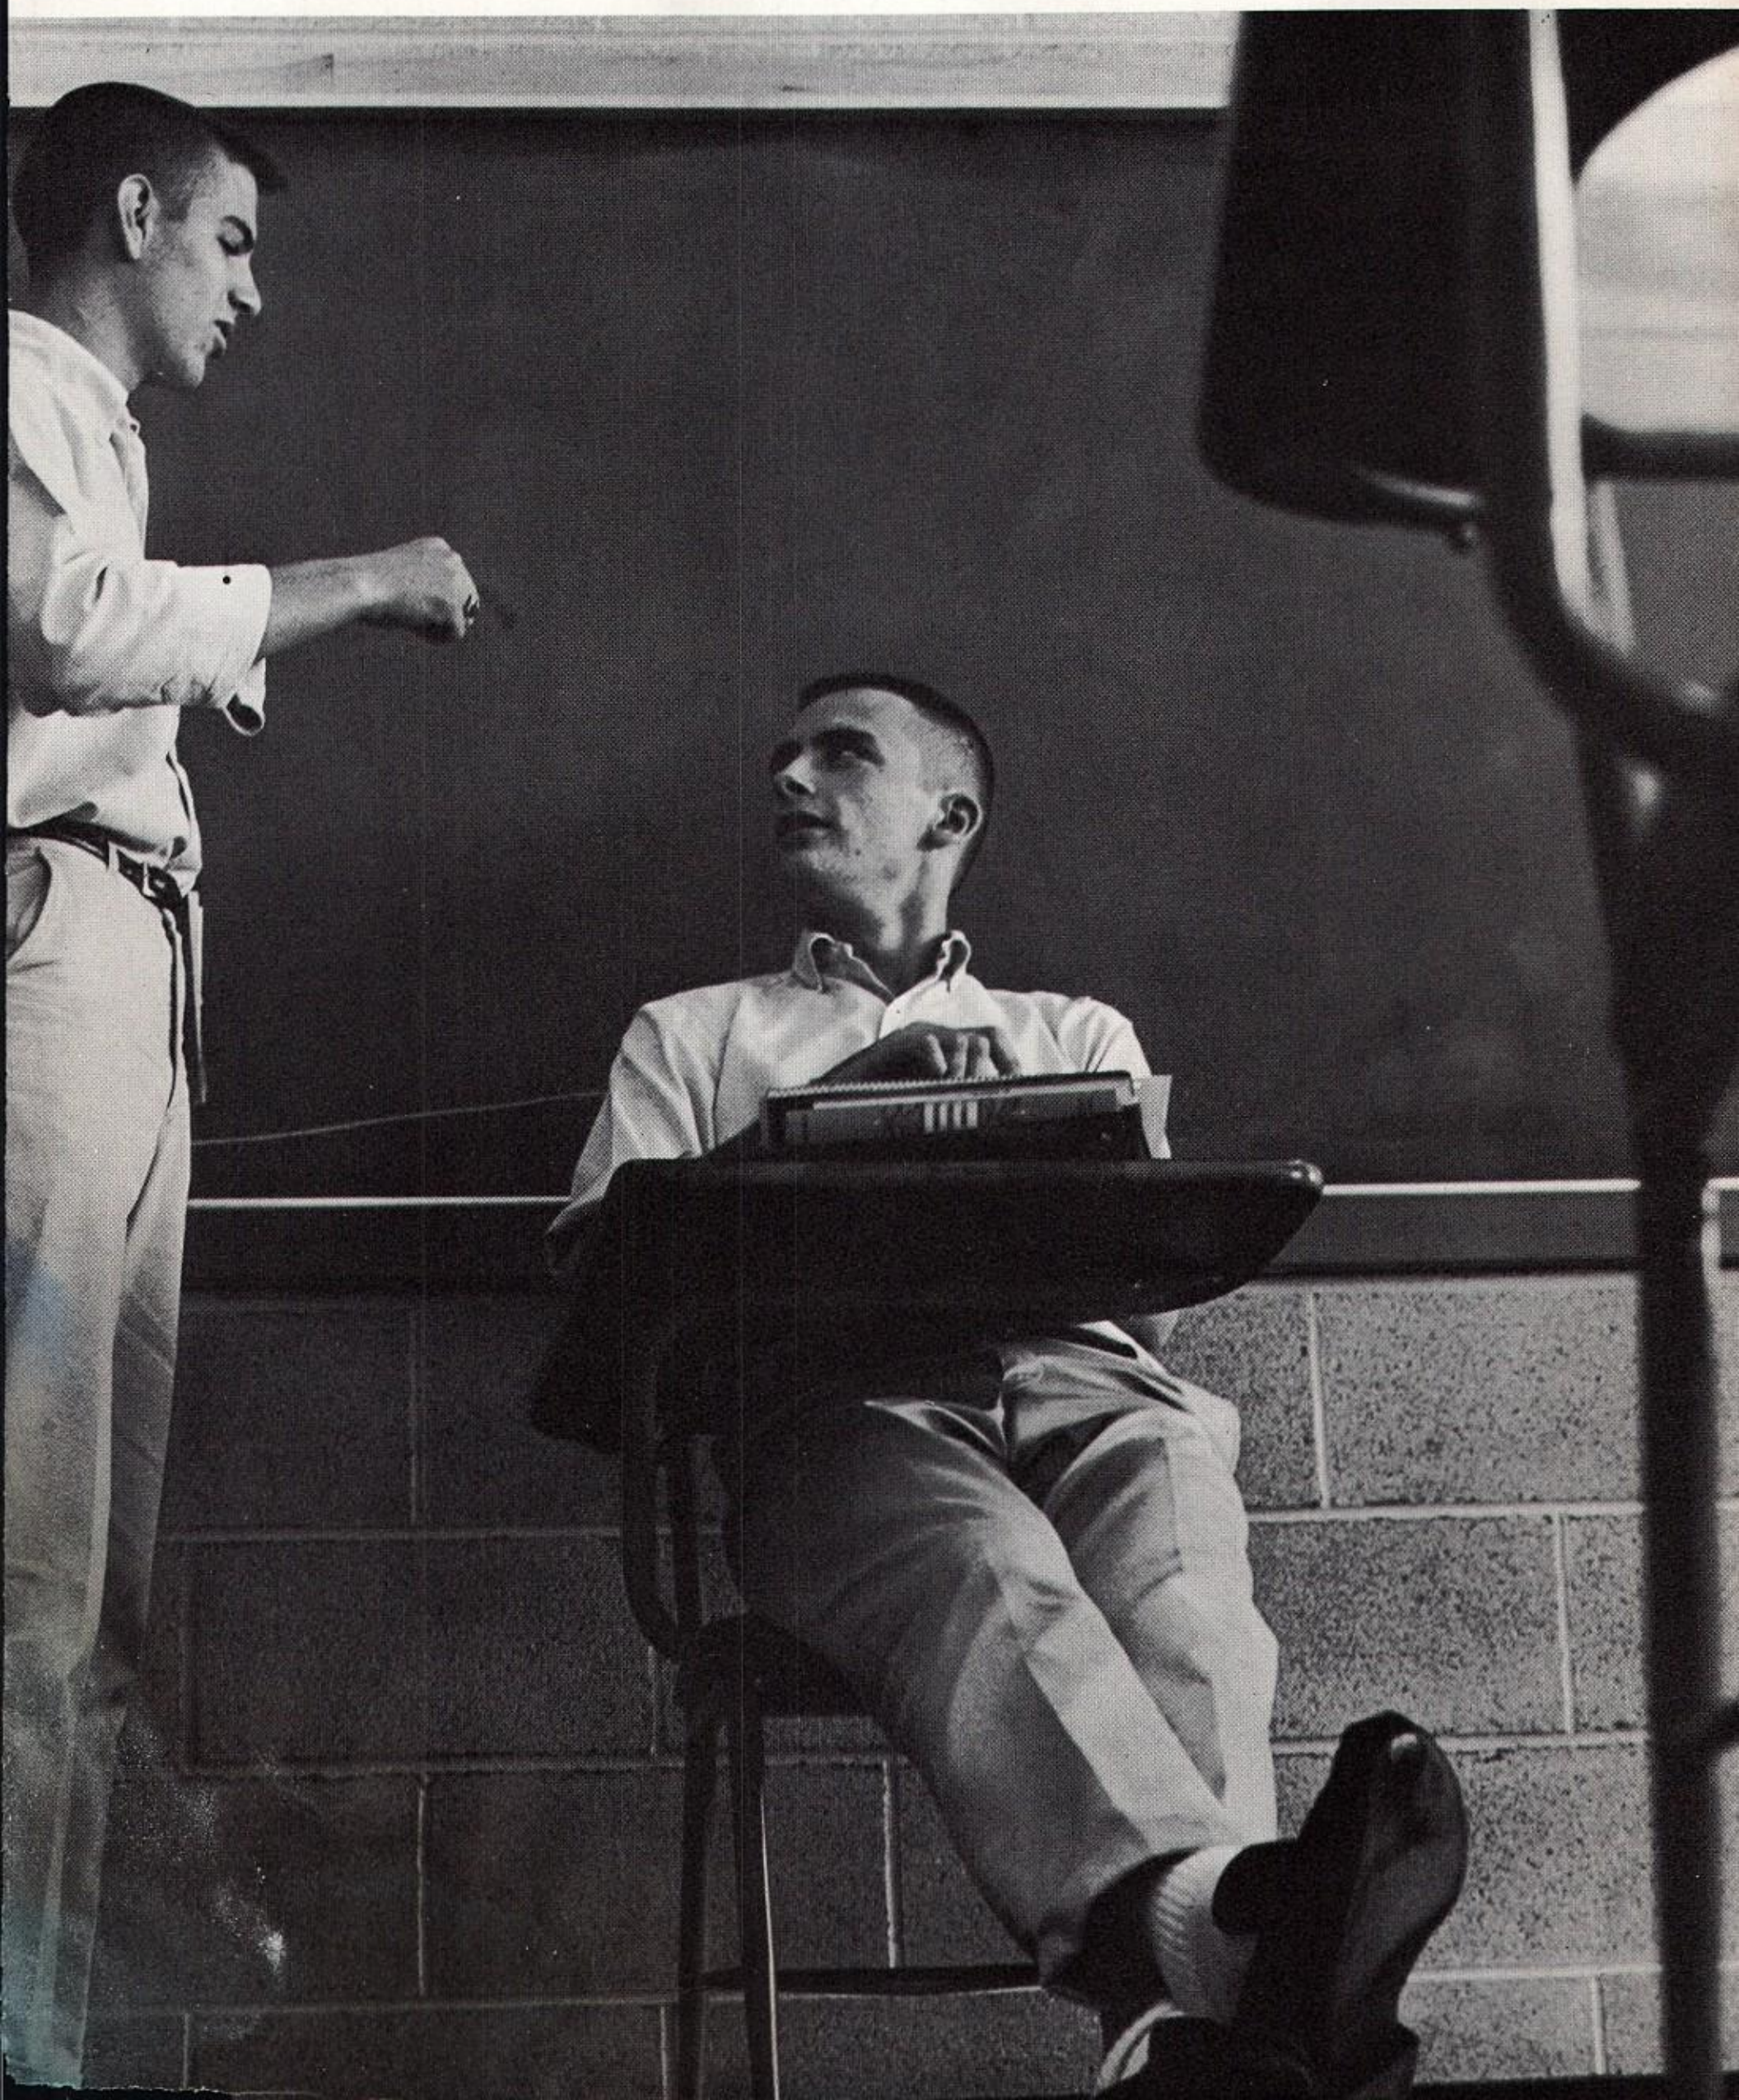


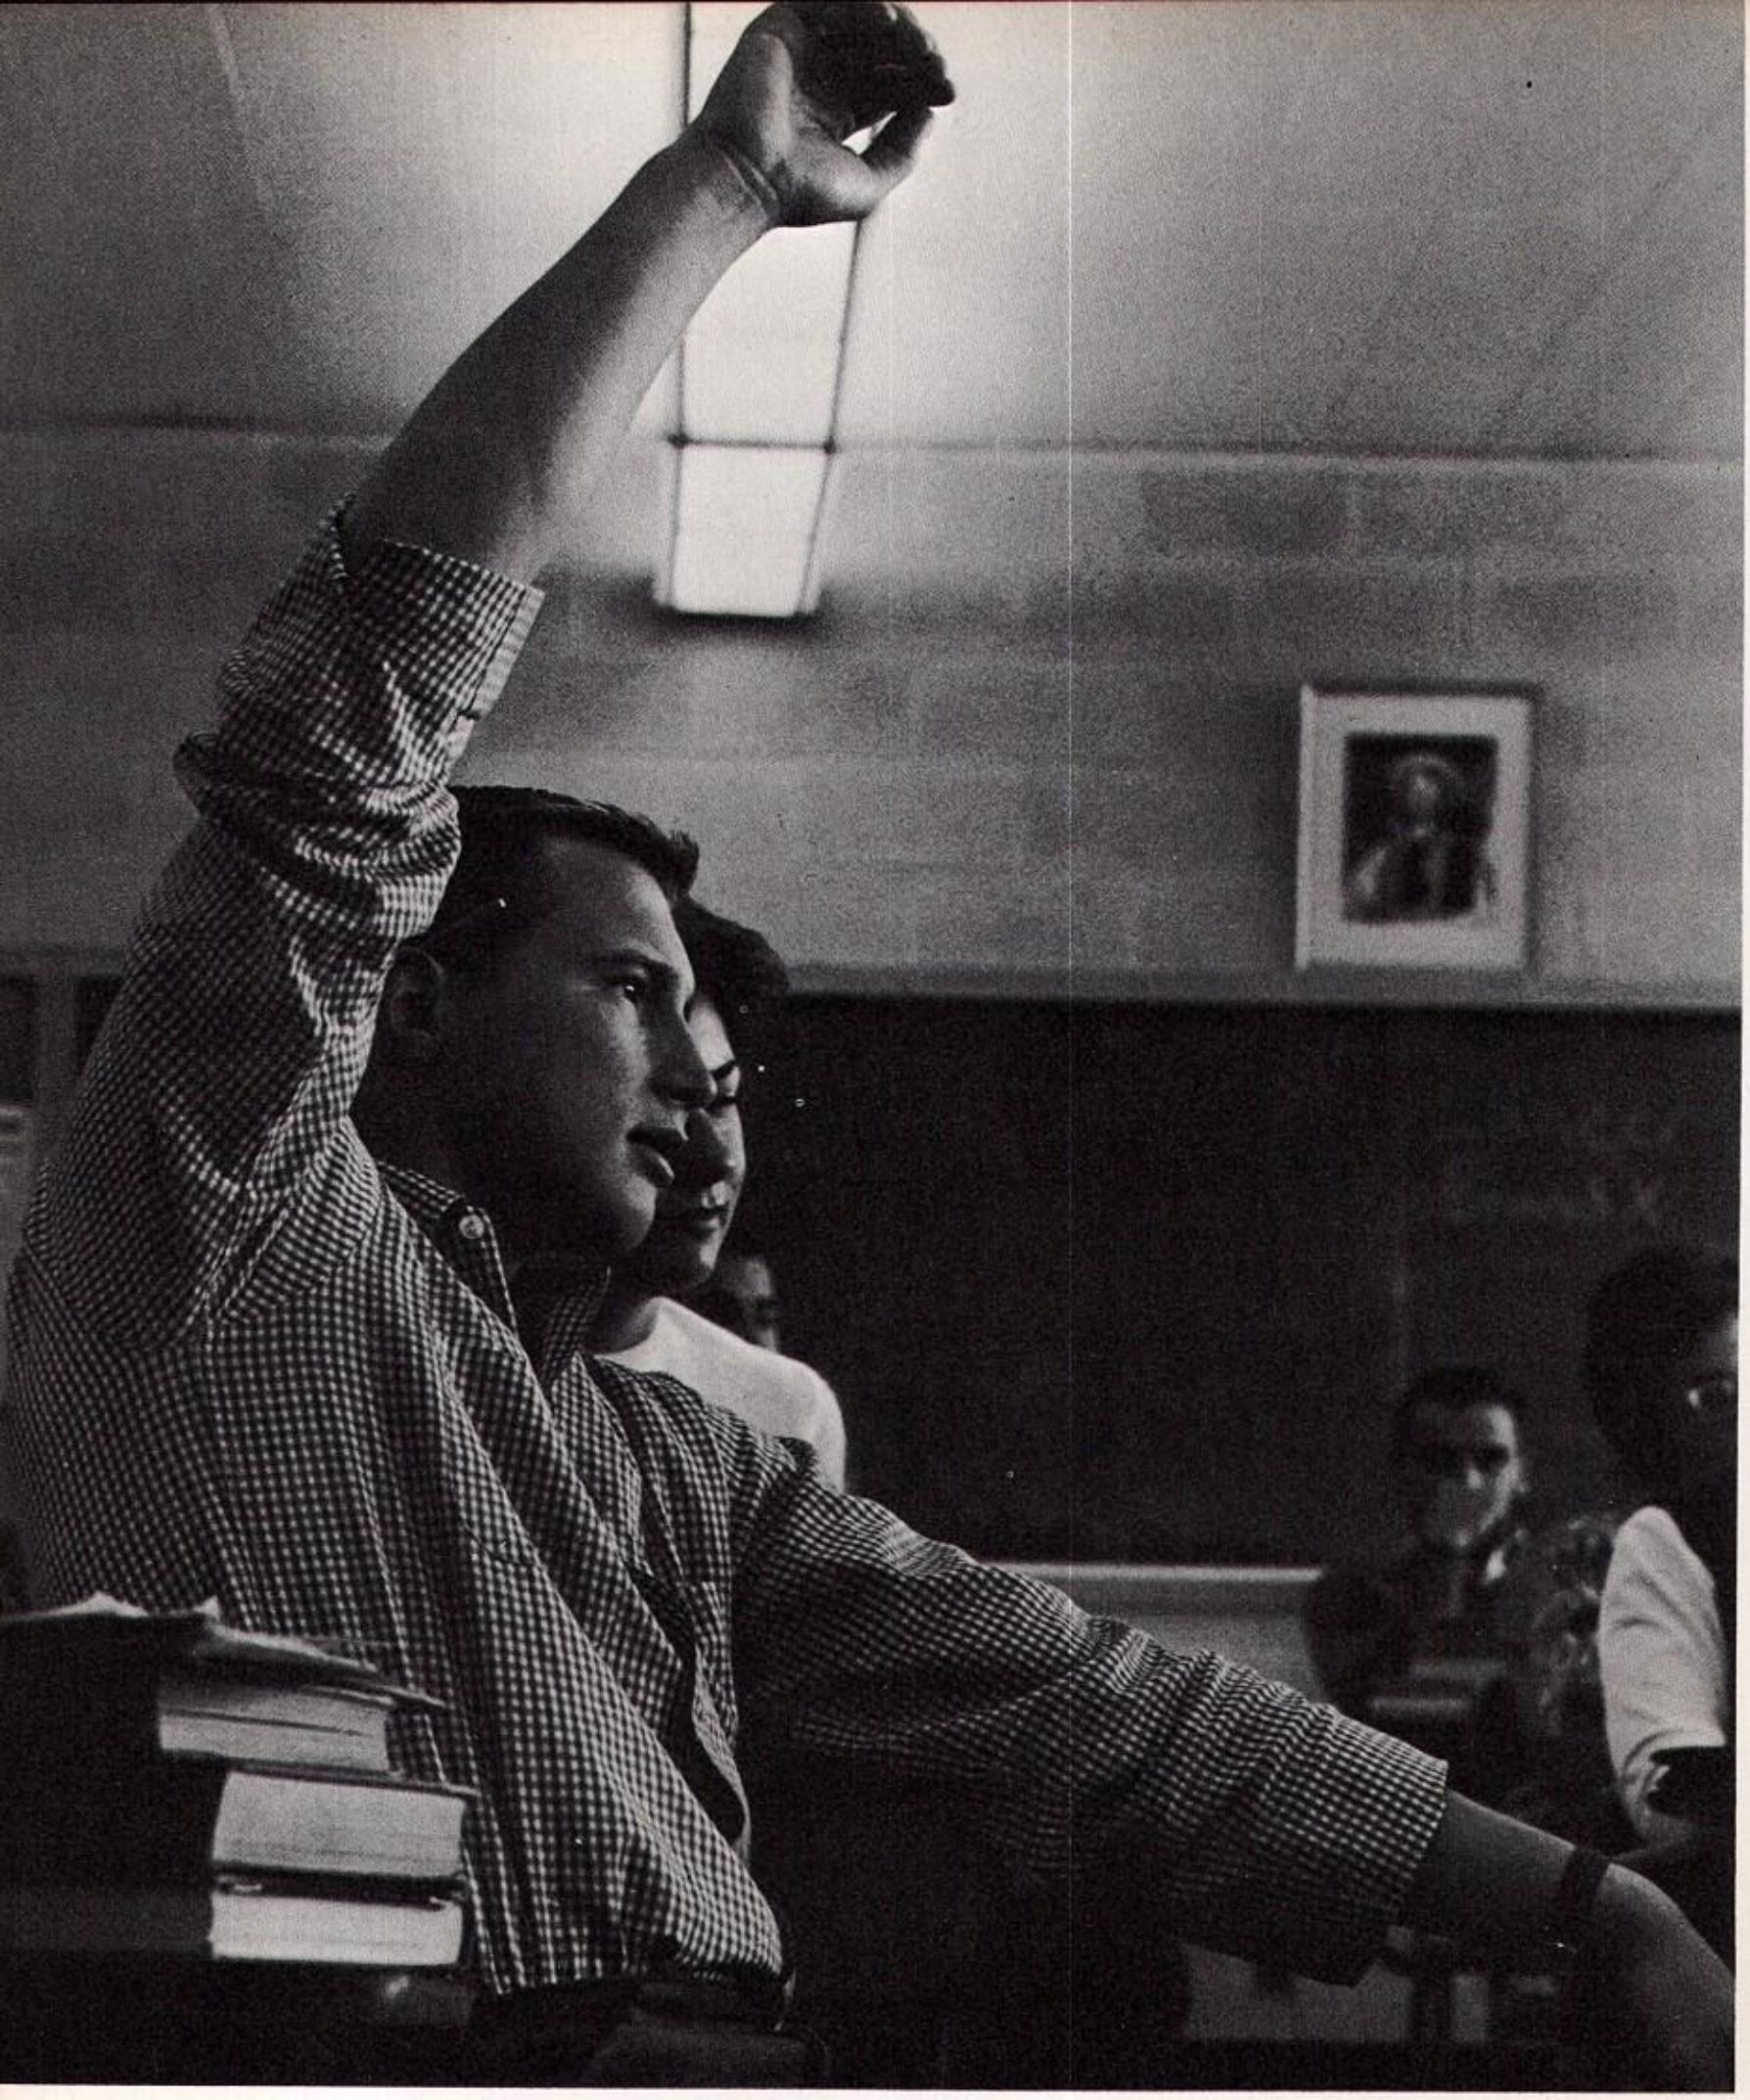
Is Sarah Adams looking at her bacteria specimen or the mysterious face in the mirror?

CLASSES: Experimentation Preparation Deliberation

Louis Pace checks the muffler clamp on a car in auto shop.

Dave Meissner relates his experiences of the previous Saturday night to Tom Jones.



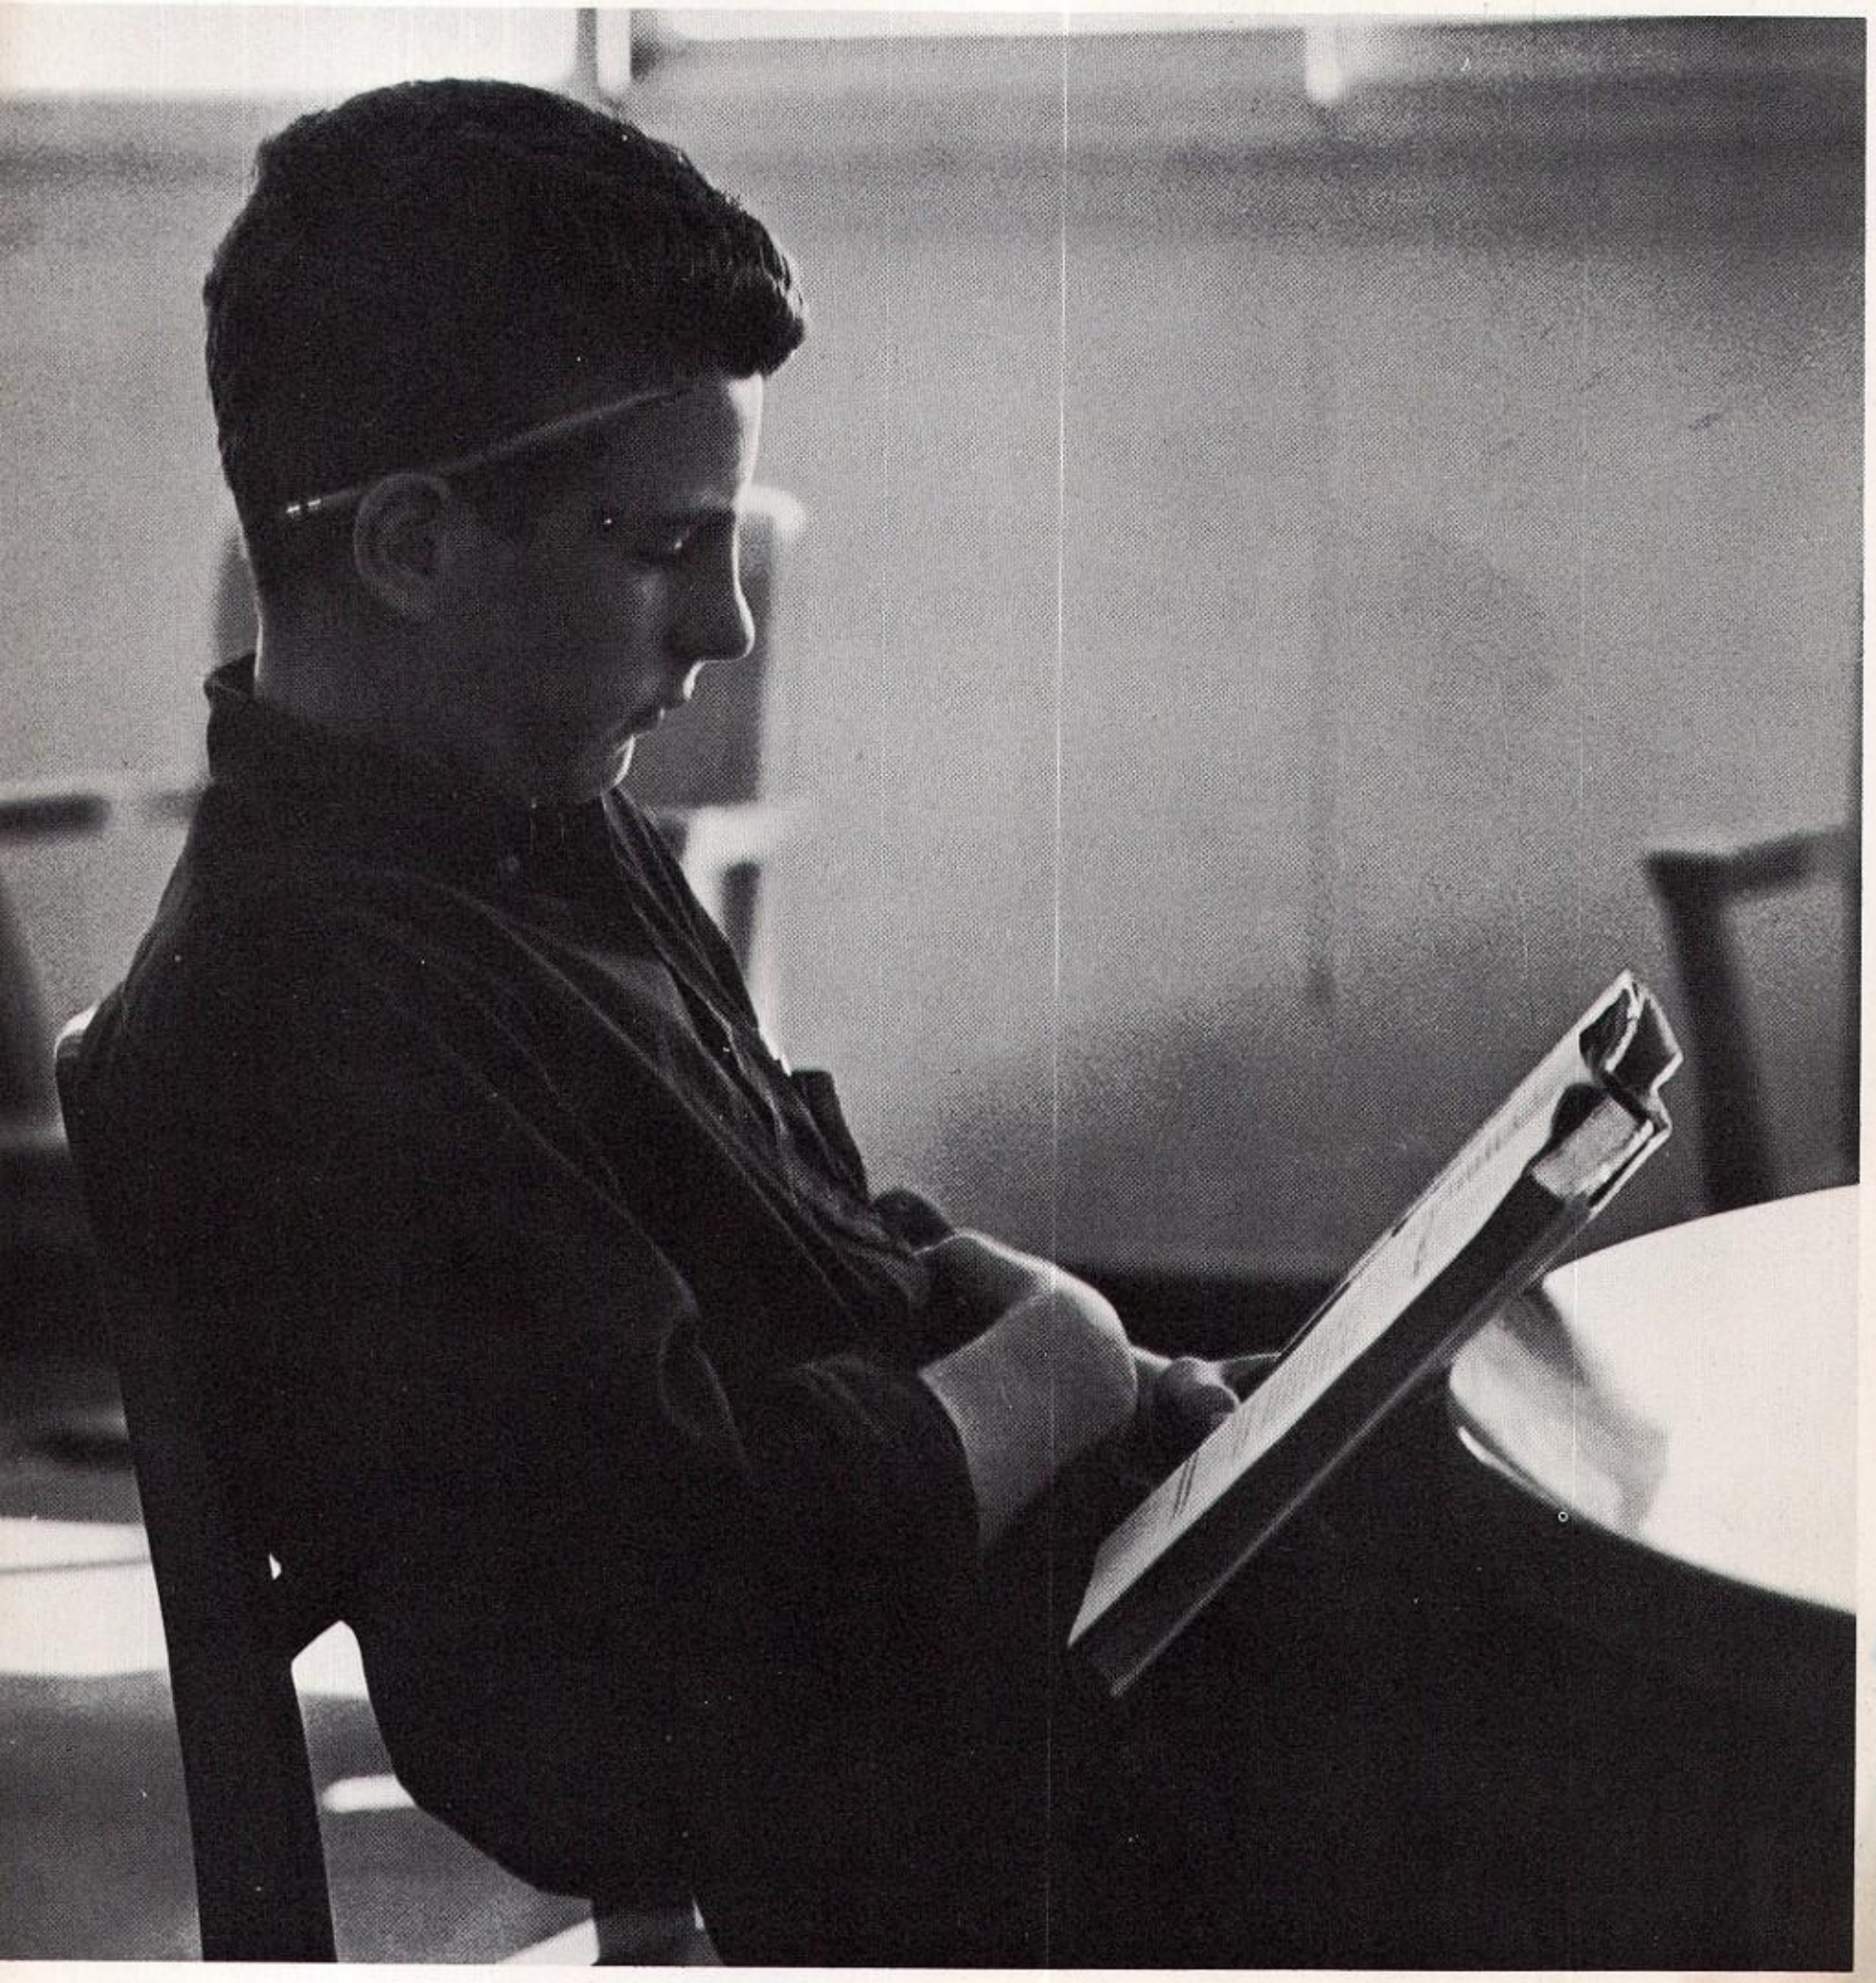


John Shtogren volunteers an answer to one of Mr. Rosen's endless questions, "Who Wrote Macbeth?"

Intently putting the finishing touches on an artistic masterpiece is Marlee Beguhn in Art 1.

In graphics John Mohan masks up a negative for the Herald.

Practicing for the orchestra's concert are novice musicians Sue Dreyfus and Frances Hesse.



Ron Montgomery is absorbed in an exciting novel in the peace and quiet of the library.

STUDY:
Investigation
Reflection
Contemplation

Studying for the many courses offered in Kimball is a major part of each student's life, and this essential activity takes place in all parts of our school: the library, the hall, and the classroom.

Pondering over a difficult paragraph of Chaucer's Canterbury Tales is Rita Schneider.

Pat Lawson basks in the late afternoon sunshine as she studies for tomorrow's quiz.

Ron Johnston relays a choice bit of gossip to Judy Strauss.

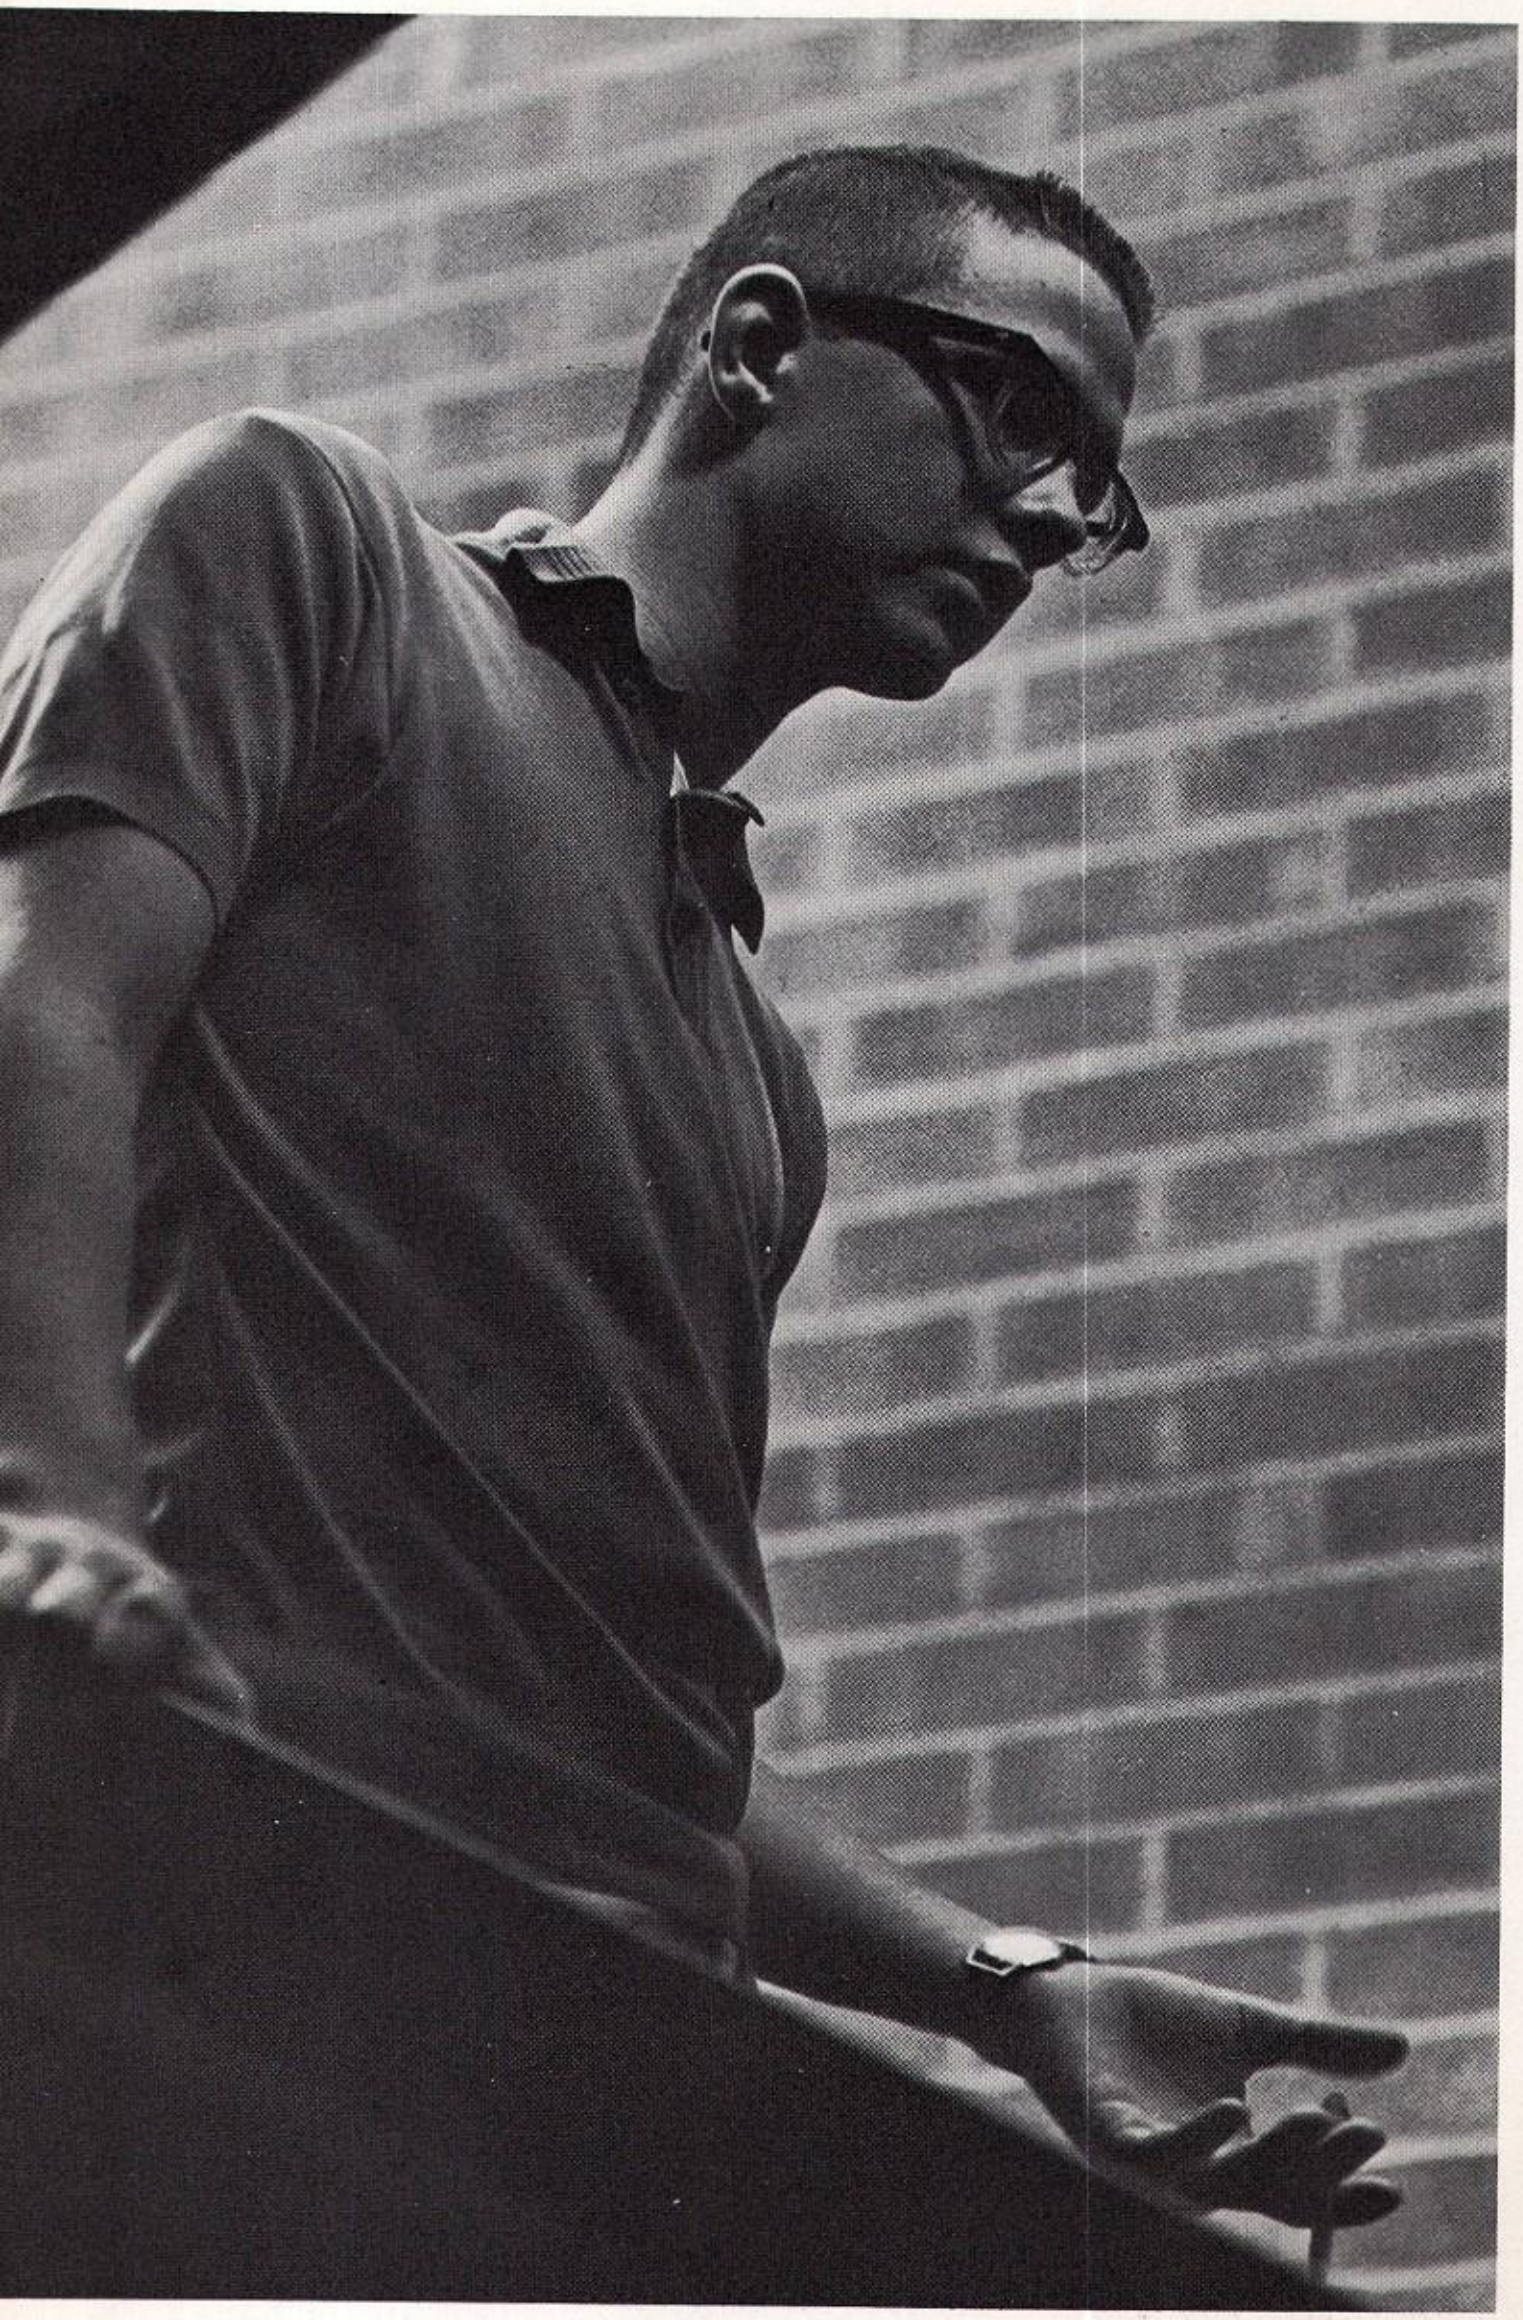
Mary Leslie smiles.

Larry Vernier dreams.

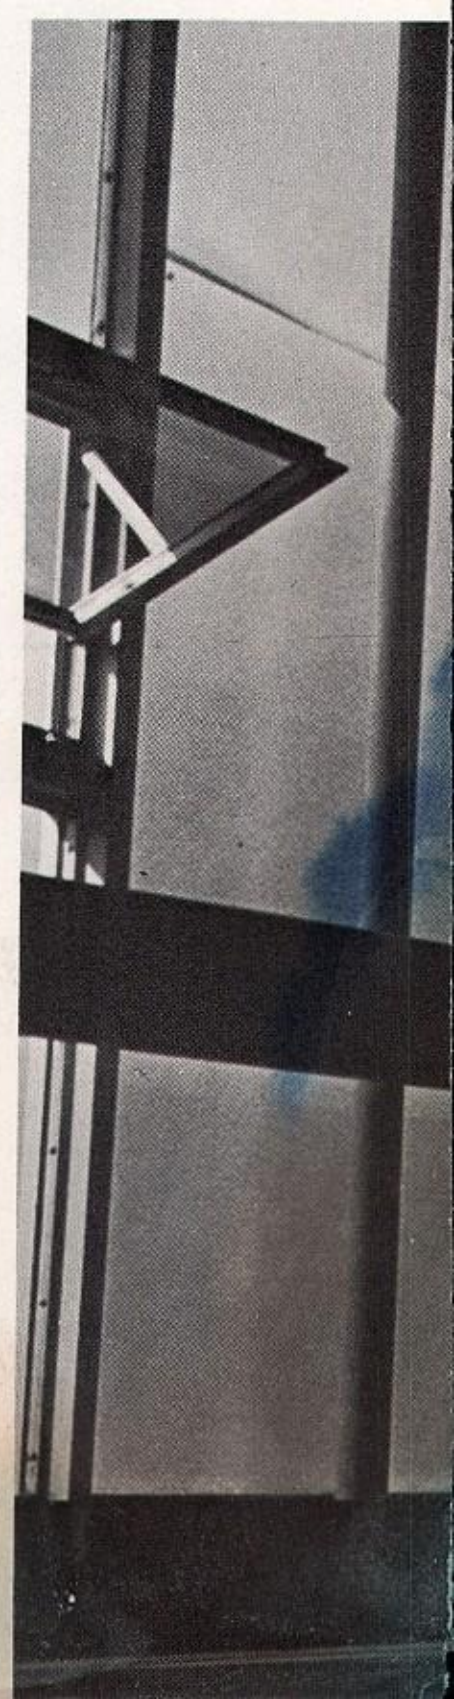
Weary feet in a rare moment of relaxation.

RELAXATION:
Entertainment
Pleasure
Friendship

—Ah, baloney! thinks Mike Dalley as the girls chatter about their friends.



"What's a hall pass?" asks Morgan Hiser, cornered on the stairs.



Three hungry boys take a short cut across the court to the cafeteria.

"Going down is easy," says Janet Ambrose as she decends the ramp.

The School Day Ends . . .

. . . with the long walk home . . .

. . . a date for . . .

. . . and then—home.

. . . the dance . . .

Senior Slobs Parade

On Senior Slob Day, an established tradition at Kimball, the seniors distinguished themselves from the underclassmen by donning outfits of incongruous colors and styles. Amid stares of the freshmen and sophomores and ridicule of the jealous juniors, the graduating class enjoyed the attention that they received.

Varied Activities Highlight Senior Year

Dances, senior parties, potluck dinners, the senior trip, and commencement exercises were the highlights of the final year for the class of 1962. On June 1, 273 seniors embarked on the S. S. South American for a voyage to Mackinac Island. Their cruise featured entertainment by deck games, night-club acts, and meals fit for a king. On the Island the seniors participated in such activities as horseback riding, sight-seeing, and shopping in the many quaint shops.

"Just who does she think she is?" wonders Karen Burkhardt.

"Aw, shucks, it was nothing", says blushing Bennie Shellnut.

Off to a week-end of fun at Mackinac are nine enthusiastic seniors.

Potlucks Prove Popular

A potluck dinner is a traditional activity of each senior class. Meat loaf, chicken, casseroles, salads, vegetables, cakes, pies, and cookies were the fare of the first dinner held on December 19. The seniors danced and enjoyed entertainment provided by members of their class.

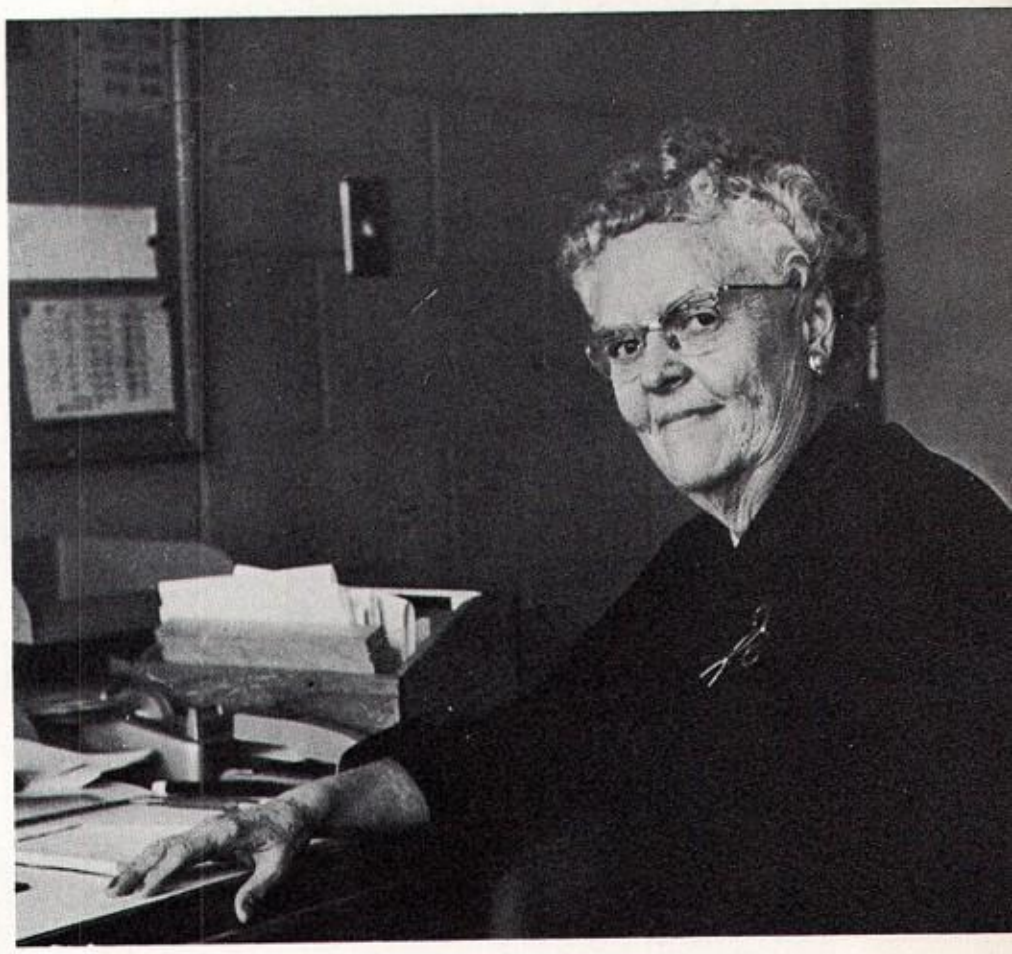
More Graduating Seniors

We bid a fond farewell to these four "graduating seniors" who have served Kimball and Royal Oak so well through their careers in education as a superintendent, a counselor, a drafting teacher, and a commercial teacher. They will long be remembered by the many students who profited from their teaching and administrative abilities and by the class of '62.

Leaving teaching after thirty-two years of service, Mr. Alfred Jilbert recalls the many drafting classes he has taught.

Mr. James Covert, retiring superintendent of schools, surveys Royal Oak's educational progress accomplished during his thirteen years of service.

Mr. Haldon Robinson, co-ordinator of distributive education and head of the supply store, reminisces about his fifteen years of teaching.



Kimball says farewell to Miss Eva Moore upon her retirement after teaching and counseling for the past forty-two years.

Freshmen Adjust to Strange Surroundings

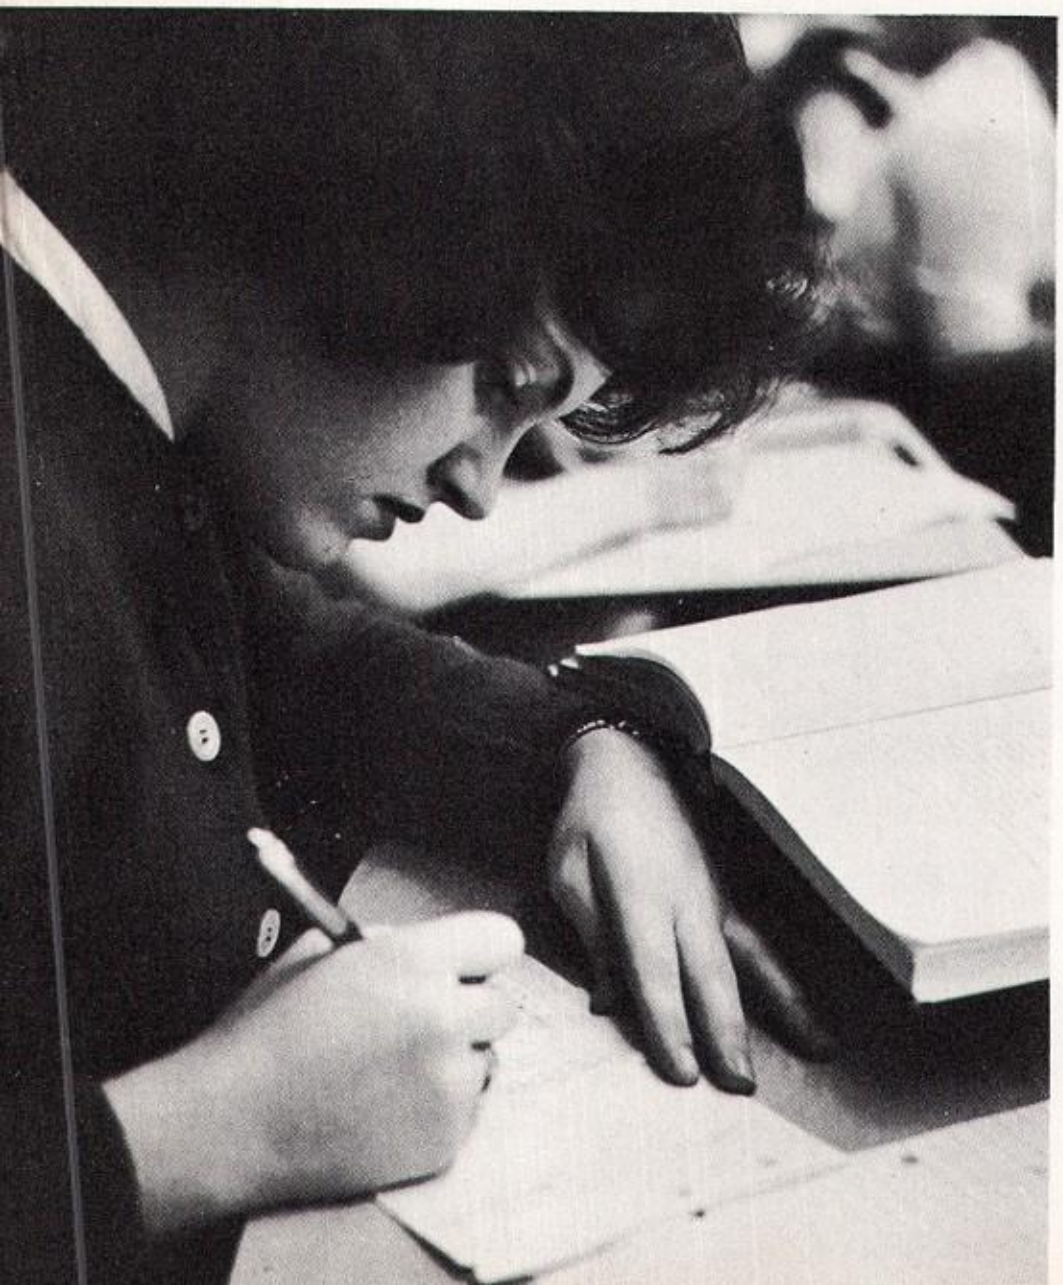
Freshmen enter this school awed by its endless corridors and myriads of students. However, adjustment to civics, algebra, and Spanish comes quickly, and they discover and participate in the many extra-curricular activities of a Class A high school.

Bonnie Barnes and John Baumann pause in the midst of hustling, bustling fellow students.

Barb Greig hopes to receive inspiration for her next art project as she gazes at the blackboard.

Puzzled over a difficult general math problem is freshman Vance Lake. This course gives the student a review of math principles.

Donna Grigsby corrects her figuring as she completes a general math assignment for her fifth hour class taught by Mr. Mack.



Freshman gym classes offer diverse activities, including modern dance. Here Jean Betzner learns important interpretive movements.

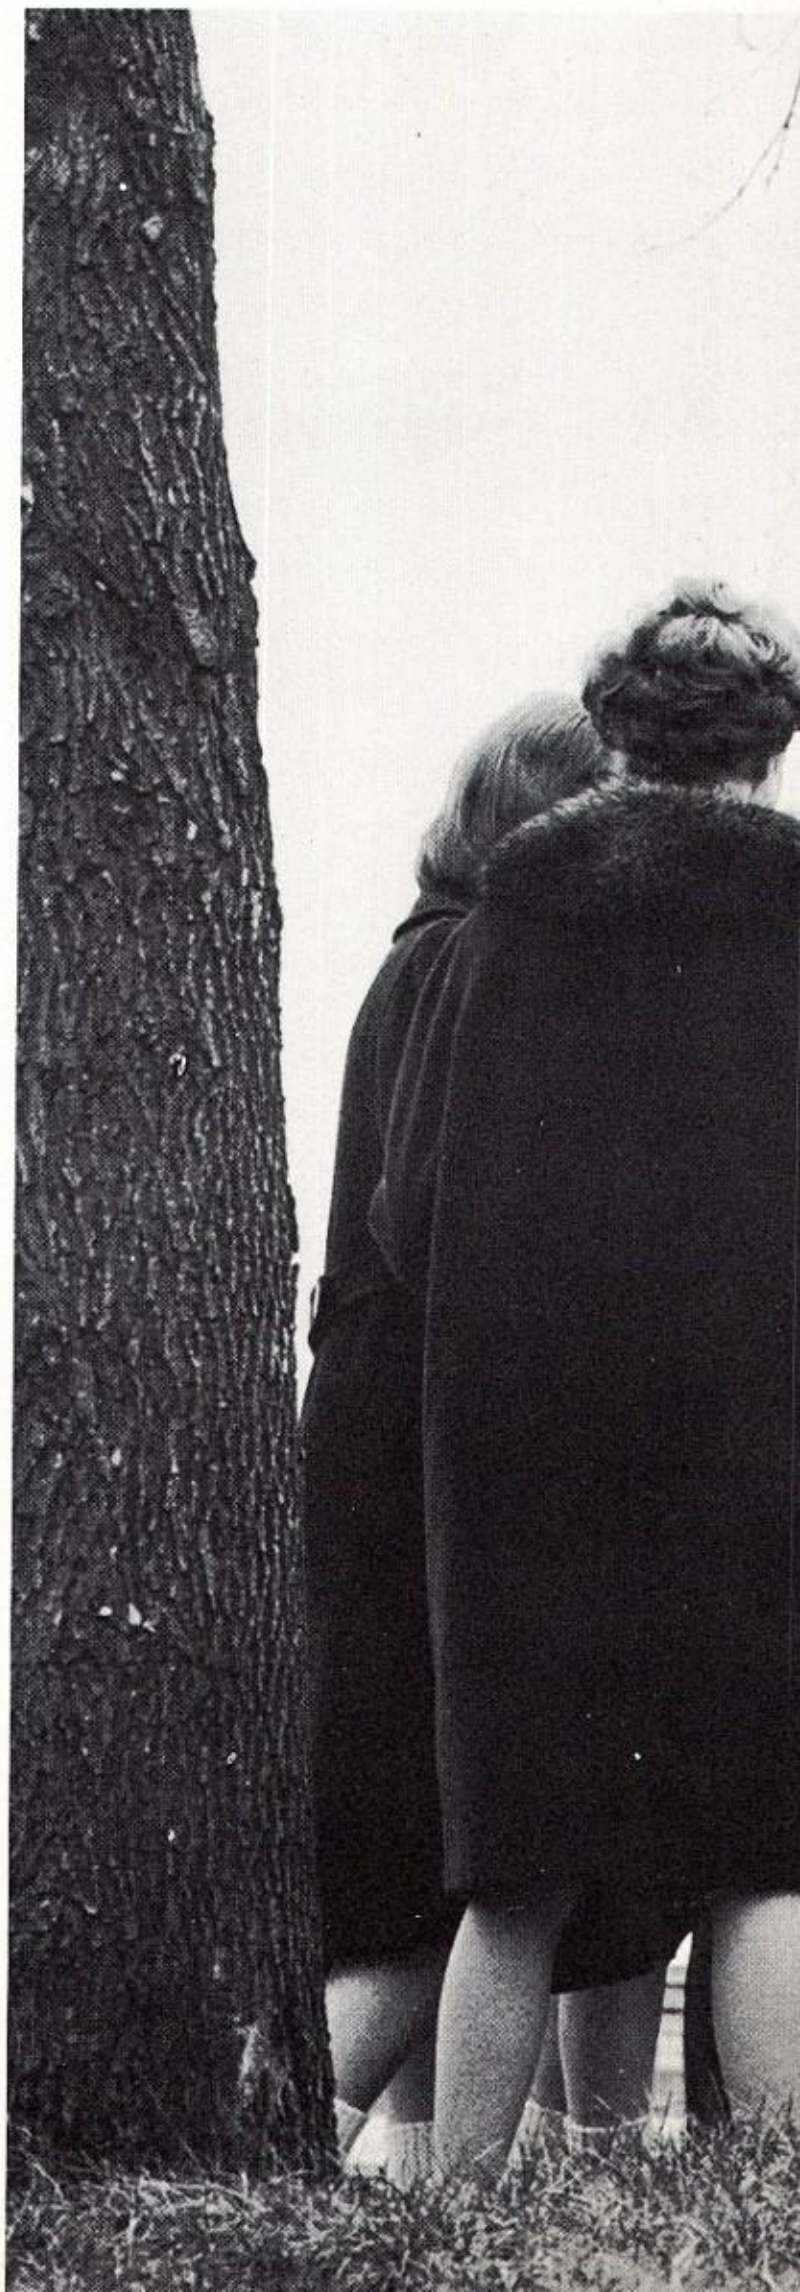
Learning the fundamentals of newspaper layout in English 3-4J are sophomores Rod Kreger and Jane Tipps.

Pausing for a brief tete-a-tete during the rush to class is sophomore Joan Logan.



Sophomores Emerge with New Interests

Their second year of high school offers the active sophomores many opportunities. No longer novices in school life, they involve themselves in geometry, biology, and drivers' training, and expand their interest in clubs and junior varsity athletics.

Mr. Ralph Miller takes his biology class on a field trip.

Darlene Hayes responds as Larry Emig contemplates her answers.

Framed by a drawing board, Barry Long carefully completes an assignment.

Mr. Wray Barrows explains the eccentricities of English grammar to sophomores Connie Grablan and Jane Waldron.

Jim Merritt and Jerry Cox show creative ability in metal work as they operate the grinder in order to complete their projects.

Having her say during a panel discussion in English 5 is Sue Spalding.

Judy Rogalski gives assistance

Juniors Enjoy Varied Activities

Juniors have finally reached that respected plateau . . . they're upper-classmen. Social life is liberally mixed with chemistry, speech, American history, and shorthand. Some find their place in FTA or National Honor Society, while others succeed as varsity athletes.

Knights Take E.M.L. Crown

For the first time in Kimball's short history the football team finished the season undefeated, placed first in the Eastern Michigan League, and ranked third in the state.

The coveted Oak Stump for the first time made its home in the Knights' trophy case as they defeated their city rival, Dondero, by a score of 33-6.

Other wins included Southfield, 26-7; Birmingham 27-13; Mt. Clemens, 12-0; Hazel Park, 32-0; Fitzgerald, 52-0; East Detroit, 54-6; and Port Huron, 45-6.

Escaping his opposition, Wally Gabler, quarterback, races downfield.

The only tie of the season disappointed both of the undefeated teams involved, Kimball and Ferndale. As 7,500 fans turned out on the coldest, dampest night of the season they were faced with a disheartening 7-7 match.

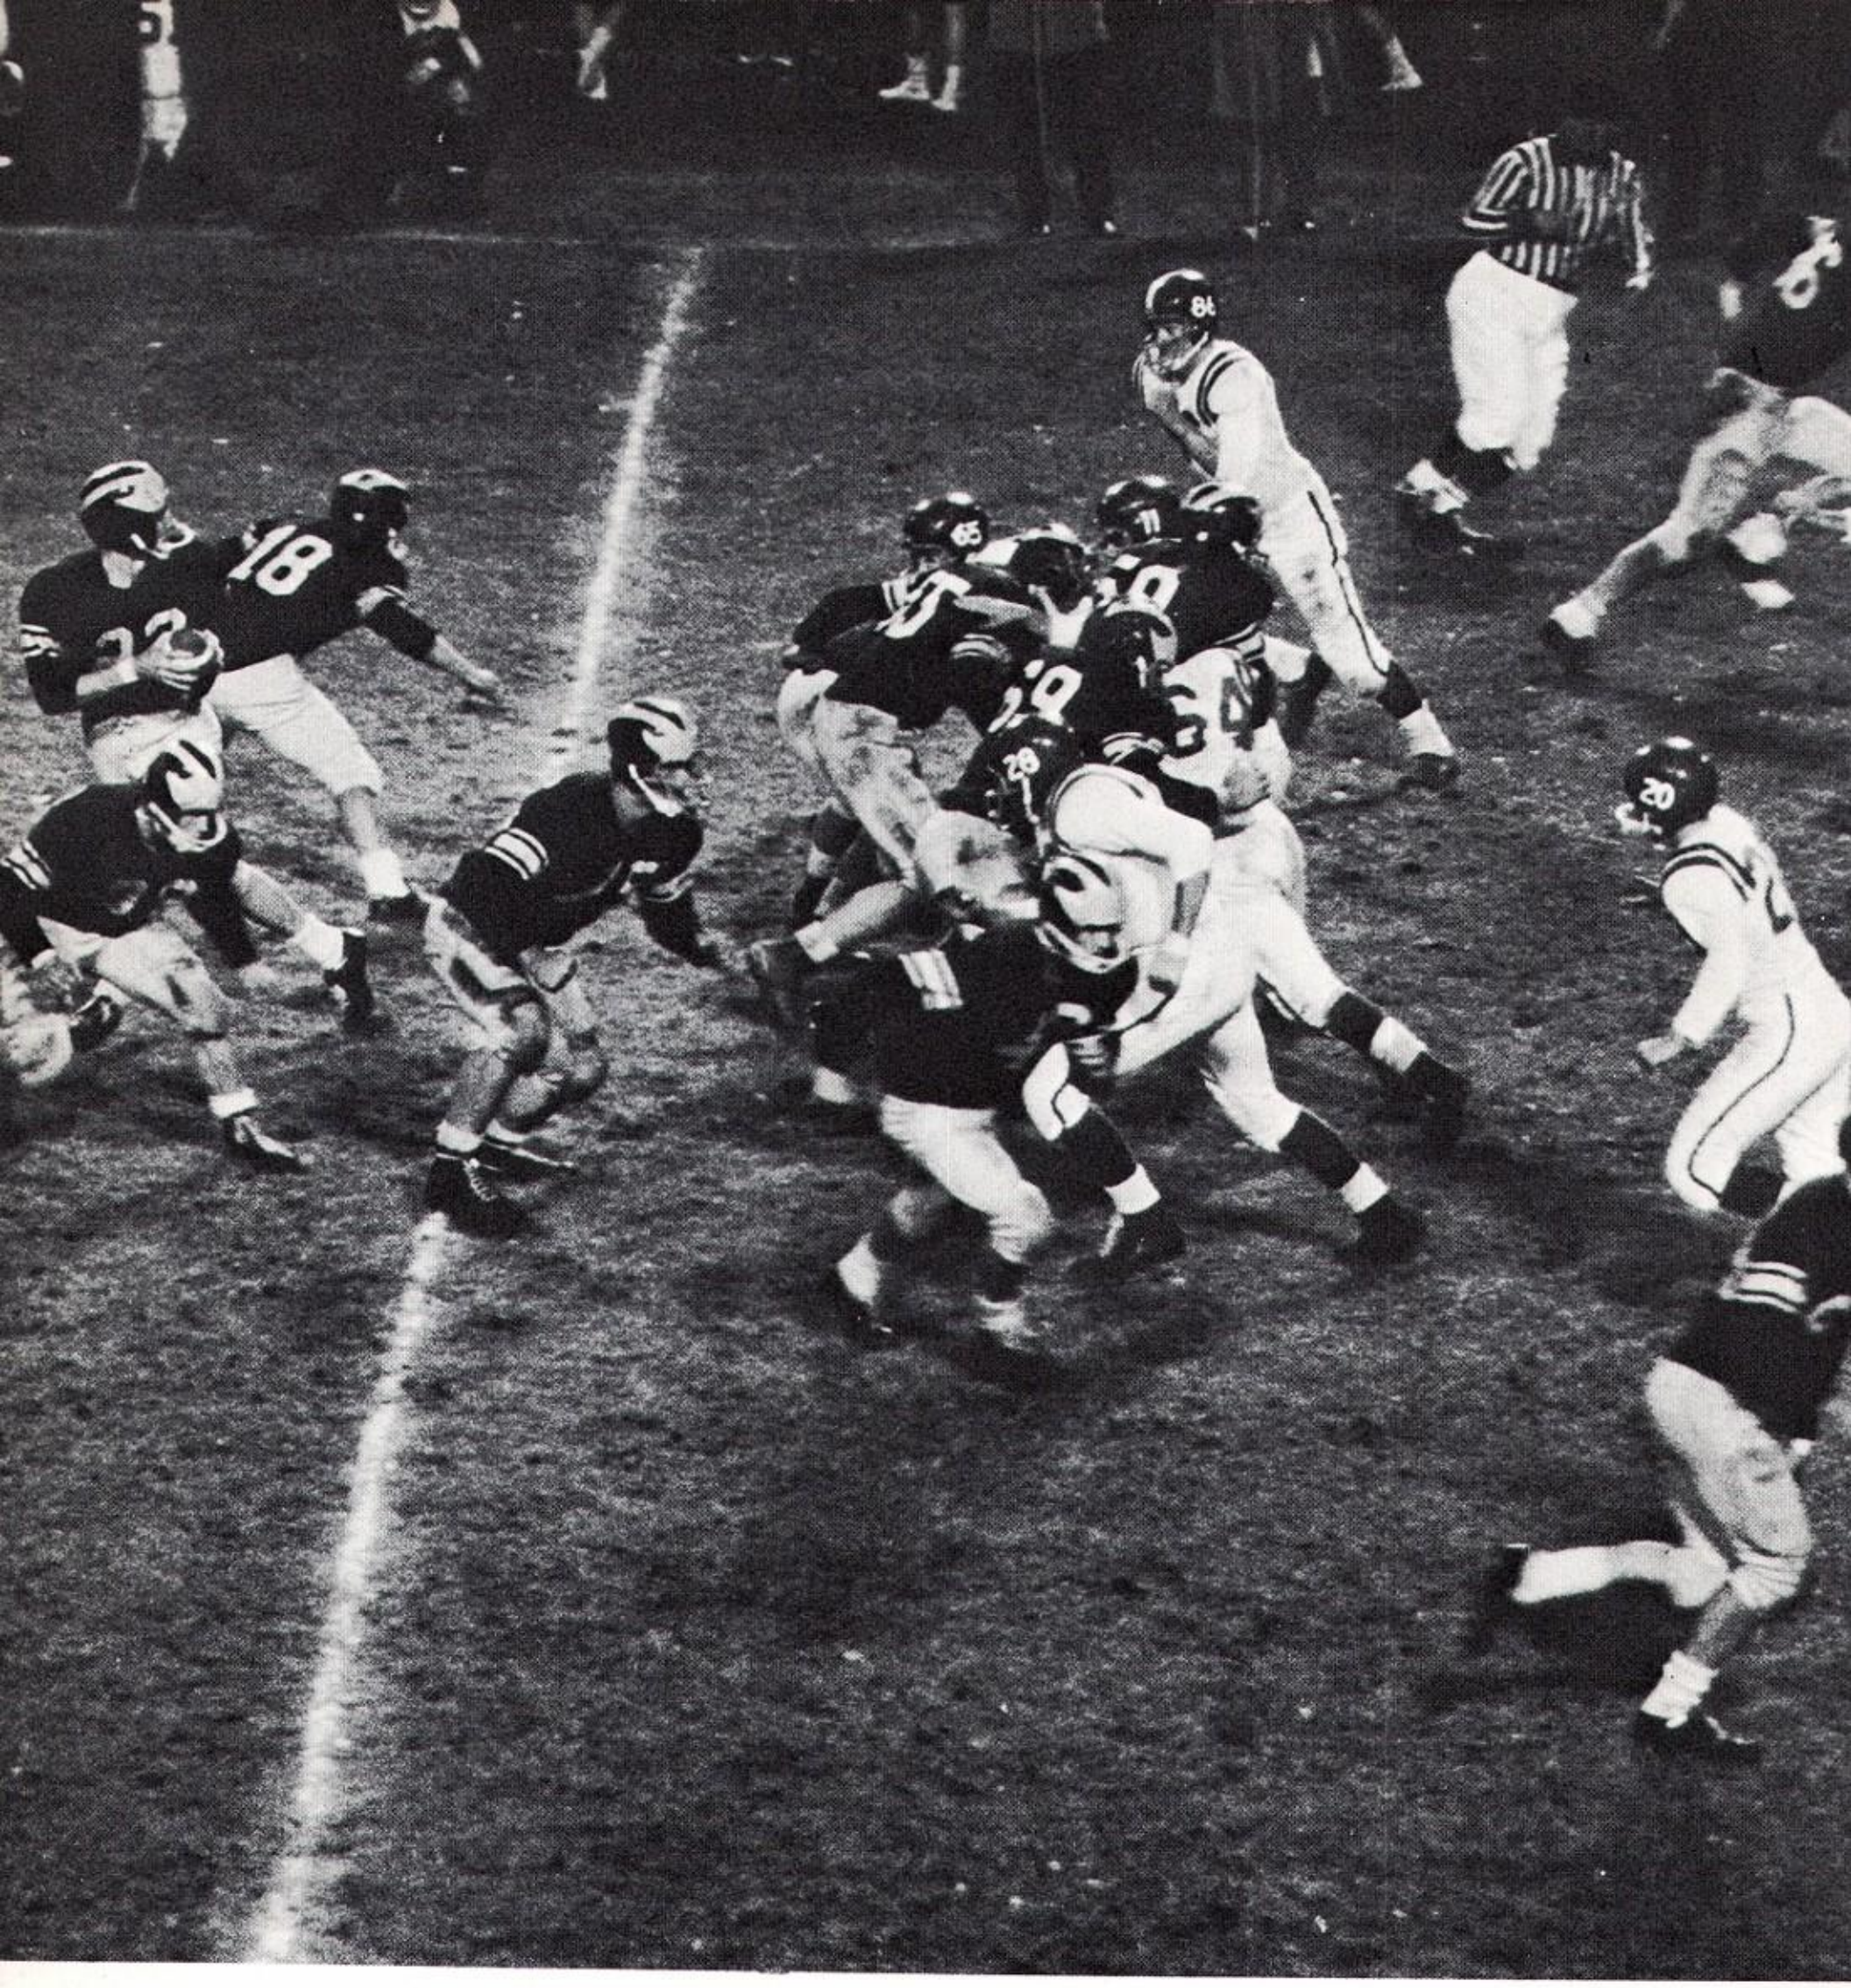
Coaching, needless to say, was the major factor in producing a team of this caliber. Head Coach Prentice Ryan, with the aid of assistants Paul Temerian and Bill Odykirk, provided the team with spirit and training.

Seven members of Kimball's first string squad were honored with positions on the Royal Oak Tribune's All South Oakland County Team. On offense were Wally Gabler, quarterback; Craig Kirby, end; Dick Ries, guard; and Earl Caldwell, tackle. On defense were Randy Frank, end; Ben Shellnut (captain), guard; and Russ Maynard, back.

Not only was the pride of the student body in their team but also in their head coach, as Mr. Ryan was honored as the All South Oakland Coach of the Year.

1st Row: R. Frank; R. Weaver; R. Maynard; C. Kirby; R. Johnston; S. Wilson; B. Shellnut, captain; G. Gabler; R. Harris; R. Ries; E. Caldwell; D. Leonard. 2nd Row: Coach Pin Ryan; M. Kirkpatrick; G. Acree; H. Alden; J. Pikur; D. Sanderson; L. Vernier; T. James; L. Harper; D. Krueger; G. Maten; J. Dickason; R. Tingstad. 3rd Row: Coach Paul Temerian; F. East; K. Wirth; A. Winkler; G. Ogden; B. Bityk; E. Duering; D. Gantz; C. Meagher; K. O'Brien; A. Bartlett; Coach Bill Odykirk. 4th Row: E. Muenchausen; D. Conlon; D. Baier; A. McCarty; J. Cameron; G. LaGassey; D. Wingfield; G. Davies; W. Chilton; C. Wheatley; G. Houck.
In front: J. Sterling; J. Filmore, mgr.; E. Johnston.

Senior halfback, Russ Maynard, (18), fights for added yardage at the October 20th East Detroit game. Although this was a 54-6 Kimball victory, Russ' key runs were an important factor in the Knights' strong offense.



As the play unfolds, Wally Gabler goes back to pass while the linemen block.

Basketball Team Finishes Third

Bill Chilton pulls away from the opposition.

Coached by Mr. Vince Sigren, the basketball team finished the season with a record of ten wins and six losses, placing them third in the Eastern Michigan League.

Led by co-captains Bill Chilton and Craig Kirby, the squad twice defeated Mt. Clemens, Hazel Park, Ferndale, and Birmingham. They lost only to Dondero, Port Huron, and East Detroit.

This year the first string consisted of experienced returning lettermen which proved to be an important factor in the Knights' victories. Bill Chilton was placed on the All South Oakland County Team for the second year and proved to be Kimball's high scorer.

Swimmers Hold 10-4 Record.

An excellent dual meet record and a close second in the annual E.M.L. mee provided Kimball swimming fans with a team to be proud of this year. Th swimmers, coached by Mr. Richard Fetters and Mr. Robert Gose, finished th season with 10 wins and 4 losses defeating Southfield, Fitzgerald, Dearborn Mt. Clemens, Ferndale, Dondero, Fordson, Hazel Park, and Culver.

Defeats came from Birmingham Seaholm, Ann Arbor, and Grosse Pointe E.M.L. championships in their individual events were taken by co-captain Bo Kinkead, Tim Cash, Don Hagel, Mike Rowe, and Ed Jolley.

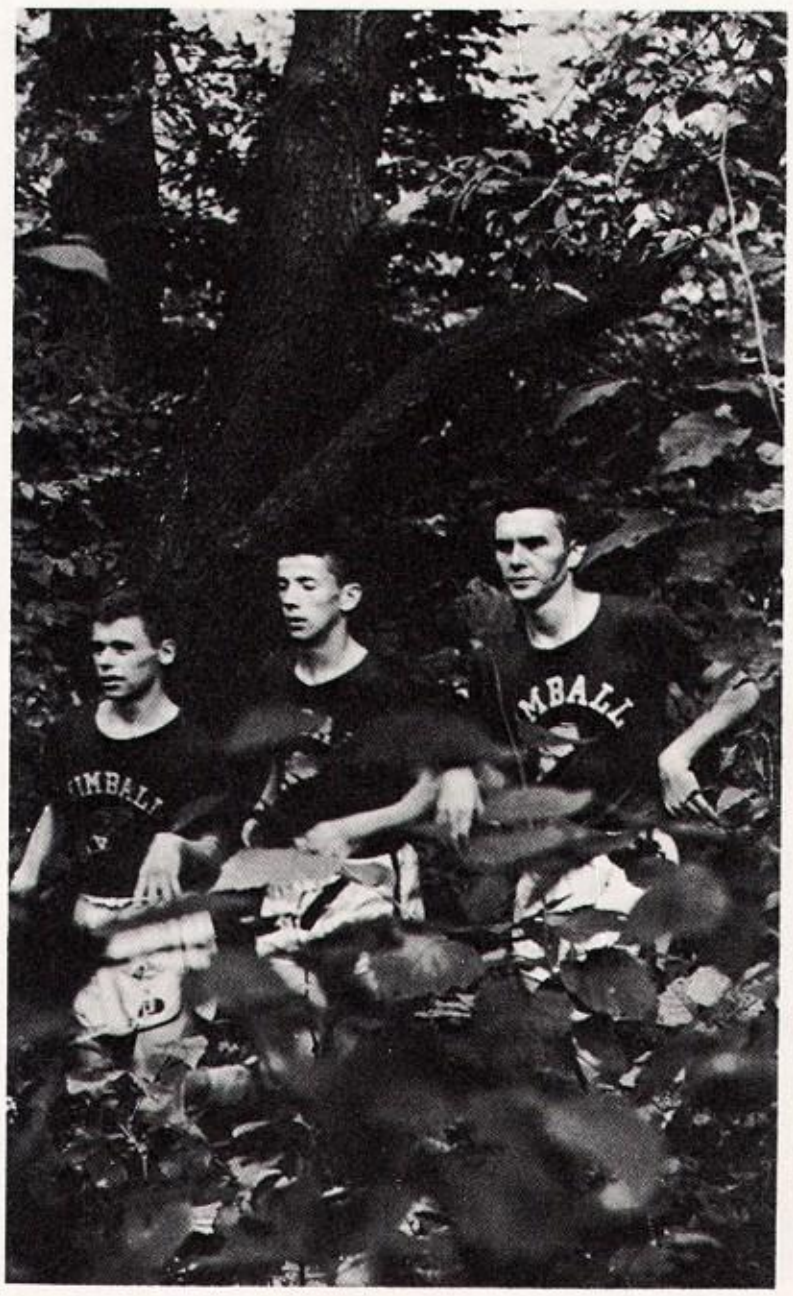
Harriers Win Two Meets

The Cross Country team, coached by Mr. Charles Belknap, in spite of hard work and constant practice had a 2 win, 6 loss, and 1 tie season. They placed 6th in the Eastern Michigan League, with captain Bob Barnes qualifying for the All South Oakland County Team.

The Harriers' wins included East Detroit, 17-42, and Port Huron, 23-35. The squad lost to Hazel Park, 29-27; Mt. Clemens, 39-20; Ferndale, 39-17; Oak Park, 30-29; Birmingham Seaholm, 43-16; and Dondero, 35-24.



Covering the Cross Country course, Bill Sturly, Doug Gerard, and Tom Alpert work diligently to build up endurance.

Larry Brown exerts full power as he races to the finish.

Track Season Good

Returning lettermen, including co-captains Roger Morgan and Tom Alpert, were a definite asset to the track team this year due to their determination and experience.

Mr. Richard Zulch once again competently coached the team as they worked toward a successful season.

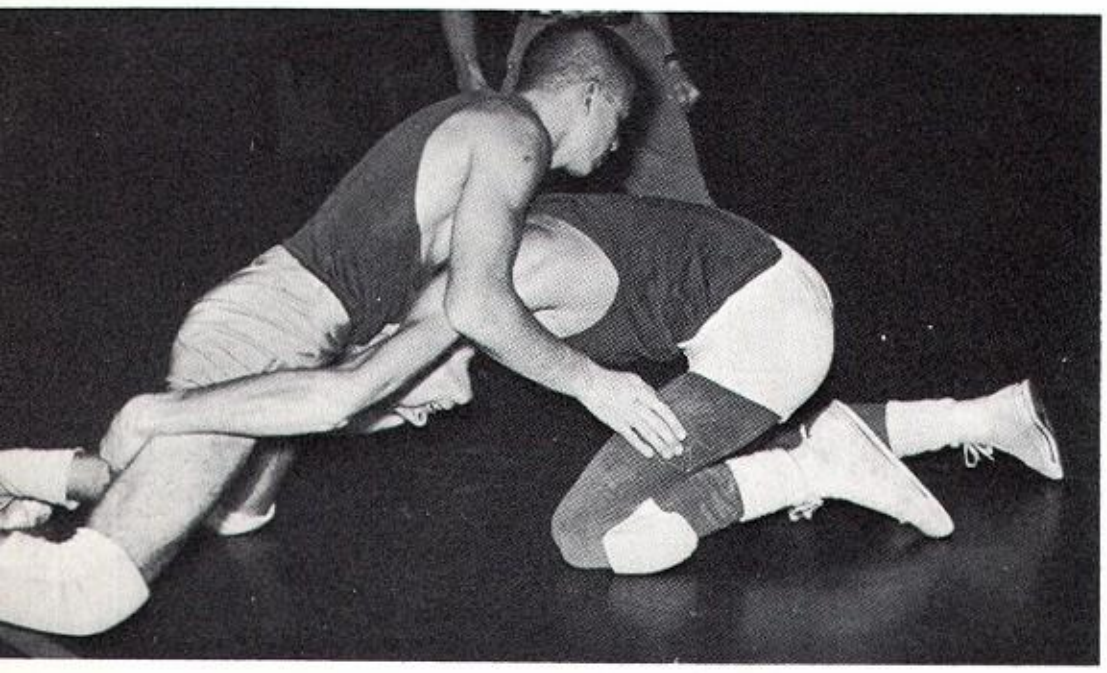
120 pounder, Jim Oddo, grapples with the opposition at the Farmington meet.



With a record of 5 wins and 8 losses the wrestling team placed third in the E.M.L. in both league and dual meets.

Confronted with a problem when Kimball's wrestling coach, Bill Odykirk, was drafted, the squad quickly found Mr. Gil Johnson of Birmingham Groves who trained them for the duration of the year.

Rick Harris proved to be the squad's outstanding wrestler and remained undefeated throughout the season. Rick, also the captain of the team, placed first in his weight class at the league meet.

Baseball Boosted By Returning Lettermen

Quick reflexes and fast action are needed when playing a base, as shown by junior Steve Wilson.

Baseball mitts and bats became familiar objects to the energetic boys who went out for Kimball's spring baseball program.

Coached by Mr. Paul Temerian and Mr. Edward Campbell, the team worked for weeks developing the speed and accuracy necessary for the coordination of a good baseball team.

Returning this year were such outstanding senior players as Wally Gabler, Russ Maynard, Dick Ries, Jerry Barich, and Bill Chilton. Junior lettermen Steve Wilson and Gary Weckerly also came back to the squad this season and promised not only to be an asset to the 1962 team but the 1963 team also.

J. V. Teams Place First in E. M. L.

League championships were taken by Kimball's junior varsity basketball and football squads, thus promising high varsity league positions in the future.

The football squad, coached by Mr. Richard Zulch, followed in the footsteps of this year's varsity squad in completing the season with the league title. Mr. Charles Jones provided the coaching for the J.V. basketball squad which maintained a record of thirteen wins and two losses to reach another first position in the league.

Print Shop Publishes Newspaper

Kimball is unique in having the Herald not only written by students but printed by students as well. Under the supervision of Mr. William Cabage, the boys in the print shop this year have been doing a great job.

As a result of the efforts of Rick Foster, Mike Kirkpatrick, Bob Hunter, Glen Clark, and Jerry Temple, the paper has been neater and cleaner.

The Herald is first dummied and pasted up in the journalism department. Then, about a week and a half before the paper goes on sale, the process of printing it begins. In layman's words, it is like taking a picture of an exact replica of a page and printing from it. Various chemicals are meticulously applied to metal printing plates, and the Herald goes to press.

As well as publishing the Herald, the print shop does all the printing of programs for school productions right in the shop. Additional jobs are the printing of all office forms, passes, signs, and even report cards.

The experience received working in a print shop is beneficial to those who are interested in the art of printing.

Lancer . . Expressive Unique

The activities of the entire school year, as well as sports, classes, and clubs belong in a school yearbook, and the 1962 Lancer staff has endeavored to compile them in an artful publication. The theme, that a student body consists of individual personalities, has been presented through a new format and unusual pictures. Mr. I. A. Rosen, the Lancer advisor, has, through his advice and photographic contributions, made possible the "new look" in the 1962 Lancer. Staff members not pictured are: Marjorie Broyles, Shiela Doyle, Darla Guss, Peter Kaerk, Judie Morgan, Joanne Patterson, Joanne Rosenberg, Sandra Snarski, and Linda Stockwell.

It's no secret

That picking the right kind of job after graduation is mighty important.

And the right one, you'll agree, is the one that gives you the most of what you want in a job—interesting work, good wages, vacations with pay, friendly associates, security and a chance for promotion.

So, if you're graduating this year and are looking for a really worthwhile job, why not drop in soon at our employment office? It's at
